Peony Festival is a success thanks to volunteers

Dear Editor,

I would like to say a huge thank you to many people that helped make our Peony Festival a huge success this year. It's not an easy chore to succeed with a venture unless you have good help, and trust me we had the best.

First I would like to thank Larry Lawrence for allowing the Old's Family Farm for using his parking lot for the Carriage rides and also Dan Peterson for allowing the Horse and Carriage to use his property for making turn a rounds.

Also I want to say thank you to Darrell and Gwen Maines for allowing the vendors to plug into their electric system. Electric was also provided by the Judge's Office. And a big thank you to Anthony Bickers for spending his time watching all the equipment Friday evening.

Now, I have lots of people I want to mention because they were the reason everything worked. David Hull and the Boy Scouts who placed all the tables and chairs to make things comfortable. Rhonda Rex and Cindy Sullivan that organized the 5-K and also had a booth to man.

It required many volunteers and they all deserve to be thanked. Marie Allison, Sandy Stockdill, Louise Hiles, Tina Wehrle, Grace and Kim Stamper, Bonnie Bond, Shirley Chipman, Connie Davis, Doris Knapper, Doris Sullivan, Bev and Bill Schwartz, Donna Terry, Judy Bridewell, Patti McCarty, Joan Ludman, Judy Smith, Cristy Collins, Paula Lillard, Charlene Giles, Ange Morris, Marcy Cozart, Sue Simpson, Jackie and Donnie Acuff, Mary McIntosh, Janet Fay, Nancy Brugg, Wayne Rassman, and Sherri Broderick.

All of the ladies that have been mentioned are also members of the Gallatin County Homemakers and I just want everyone to know that these ladies do more than bake cakes. They, along with all the others mentioned are what makes our Community rock. They all work together, they are the reason we can have events and be proud of them.

I believe in giving credit where credit is due, and all those mentioned here deserve to be thanked publicly, so THANK YOU for all you do.

Sincerely,

Mary Jane Day
