Torilena May Fields, 32, charged with the murder of her mother Trudy Fields, made an appearance in Robertson County Circuit Court, before Circuit Court Judge Jay Delaney on Monday, March 10, 2025. Ms. Fields is currently lodged in the Bourbon County Detention Center and was escorted into the courtroom by law enforcement.

Judge Delaney granted a motion, filed by Ms. Fields counsel, for an in-person competency evaluation, to be conducted by a psychiatrist. Ms. Fields counsel asked Judge Delaney that the evaluation records be kept confidential between the judge and both counsels. The Commonwealth Attorney agreed to the motion and said that he had filed another discovery motion last week.

Ms. Fields has been charged with the extremely gruesome murder and dismemberment of her mother, Trudy Fields, among several other disturbing charges.

According to the uniform citation from Ky State Police, Post 6, on Wednesday, Oct. 9, 2024, at approximately 12:26pm Kentucky State Police Post 6 dispatch received a call from James R. Blevins. Mr. Blevins advised that Tim Lewis and himself arrived at a residence located on Briery Ridge Road, Mount Olivet, Ky. to work on a building for the property owner Trudy Fields. There was no answer at the door when he knocked. While trying to locate Trudy, Mr. Blevins observed a dismembered human body laying behind the residence. Mr. Blevins advised dispatch that he believed the body is that of homeowner Trudy Fields and he believed her daughter, Torilena May Fields, was responsible for Trudy Fields death.

Upon law enforcement's arrival to the residence Troopers observed a dismembered body lying in the grass behind the residence. In close proximity to the body was a blood-stained mattress. Troopers observed blood on the back porch, in the threshold of the back door. Also, on the back porch Troopers observed a blood-stained wooden stick and another blood-stained mattress. Drag marks in the grass leading from the residence to the body were observed, as well.

Mr. Blevins disclosed in an interview, while he was walking around the residence, he observed a pile of hair, which he identified as belonging to Trudy Fields. Mr. Blevins then observed a blood-stained mattress at the back door and drag marks in the grass, leading away from the rear of the home. Following the drag marks, he observed a dismembered body lying in the back yard of the residence.

Mr. Blevins advised he last saw Trudy Fields on Tuesday, Oct. 8, 2024, at approximately 6:30pm, when she accompanied them down to the property gate and appeared to lock it behind them as they exited. On that same day Mr. Blevins stated that Torilena Fields was "casting spells" on them and was being confrontational. Mr. Blevins advised that Trudy Fields and Torilena Fields were the only ones at the residence on Oct. 8, 2024.

A search warrant was obtained for the residence and the Kentucky State Police Special Response Team (SRT) was called to the scene to make entry into the residence. Upon making entry into the residence, Torilena May Fields was the only individual located inside.

Torilena refused to exit the residence when multiple commands were given. CS gas (tear gas) was deployed by the SRT. After multiple volleys of CS gas and conversing with Torilena using a robot, she was removed from the residence without further incident. She appeared to have blood on her face, hands, and clothing.

Closer observation of the body of the deceased revealed that the arms, legs, and head had been removed. The torso and spine were severed in half and the organs removed. The mattress lying next to the dismembered boy was folded in half, and upon unfolding the mattress, multiple body parts and organs were found.

Inside the kitchen of the residence, a stainless-steel pot was observed in the oven. When removing the pot, human body parts were found inside, that appeared to have been cooked inside the oven. The pot was still warm to the touch.

Upon arrest, Torilena May Fields was taken to the hospital to be medically cleared and is currently lodged in the Bourbon County Detention Center, on a then $25,000.00 cash bond for the three charges originally filed.

She was indicted early Monday morning, Oct. 14, 2024, by the Robertson County Circuit Court, which reads as follows,

-Torilena May Fields (aka Tori Fields, aka Naomi Navarre, aka Nao Navarre) 32, has been charged with one count of Murder (a capital offense); one count of Abuse of a Corpse; one count of Tampering with Physical Evidence; one count of Torturing of Dog with Serious Physical Injury or Death; and one count of Obstructing Governmental Operations.

Regarding count 1, between the 8th day of October 2024 and the 9th day of October 2024, in Robertson County, Kentucky, when with the intent to cause the death of Trudy Fields, she (Torilena Fields) caused death of Trudy Fields by shooting her in the head with a firearm and stabbing her multiple times, that at the time she was not acting under the influence of extreme emotional disturbance for which there was a reasonable explanation or excuse, and the force that she used was unlawful.

Regarding count 2, between said dates, she intentionally treated the corpse of Trudy Fields in a way that would outrage ordinary family sensibilities by mutilating, decapitating, dismembering, and eviscerating the corpse of Trudy Fields and placing her head, hands, feet, and forearms in a pot in the oven and heating them until they were charred.

Regarding count 3, between said dates, she, when believing that an official proceeding might be instituted, she destroyed, mutilated, concealed, removed, or altered physical evidence, believing that said physical evidence would be used in an official proceeding and with the intent to impair its verity or availability in the official proceeding.

Regarding count 4, between said dates, she, without legal justification, intentionally tortured and killed a domestic dog.

Bail was then set at $1.5 million dollars, subject to restitution. Det. Joshua Wise appeared as a witness before the Grand Jury.

Torilena May Fields was arraigned in Robertson County District Court, in which she did not appear, on Monday, Oct. 14, 2024, at 1:00pm. She next appeared in court, via video from Bourbon County Detention Center, on Nov. 12, 2024. Her next pre-trial conference appearance in Robertson County District Court is scheduled for July 14, 2025, at 9:00am.
