M. Florence Accepts Position.

Marcus Garr Florence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Florence of Route 2, Ewing has accepted a position with the local Southern States Cooperative, according to Gerald Burke, manager. He began his new duties March 15. For the past two and one-half years, Mr. Florence has been employed by the Jabe-town Mill. Mr. Florence is married to the former Sue Clary, who is employed in the office of the Randall Company, and they are the parents of one daughter, Lisa Ann, two years old. The new Southern States employee graduated from Fleming County High School in the class of 1959.

Type I diabetes so I decided to do my project on that," said Glascock. When it was discovered that her brother had Type I diabetes in 2001, the doctor suggested that Glascock also be checked. "The signs are being thirsty and tires and weak," said Glascock who added that she had both of those symptoms. Glascock was diagnosed in June 2002. She has to give herself injections before each meal and before snacks. Visitors to her booth also received a goody bag of handouts, coupons and free samples and good first-hand information on the does and don'ts of diabetes.
