Break-In at Court-house.

An unknown amount of money was taken from the Fleming County Court house Saturday evening in an attempted robbery. Gerald Gray, on probation at the time was, apprehended by Trooper James Dillon and Policemen Theodore Purcell, inside the courthouse between 11:30pm and midnight. Gray has $43.00 with him. Apparently he gained entry from a kay which he took from Kailer Lytle Marshall. He first tried the back door of the courthouse and was finally able to enter by the front. Neighbors reported some disturbance around the courthouse about 11pm. According to a county official, his probation will be revoked and charged could include destroying private property and breaking and entering. He is in the county jail and no date has been set for his hearing.

Fleming County Pride of the County Booth Needs Workers.

Fleming County will have a booth at the Kentucky State Fair to promote Fleming County all the visitors at the fair. It is a great experience for those who enjoy visiting and talking with folks about our wonderful county. Volunteers are scheduled throughout the day on a four-to-five hour schedule with no one having to work an entire day. Those who work the late and early shifts are provided a motel room. Information to share with visitors is provided to those who work the booth. This is a great opportunity to provide free promotion to businesses in the county.

Le the Chamber office know if you wat us to help promote your business and if you would like to volunteer for a time slot.
