A Back-to-School Bash was held this past weekend, Friday, Aug. 22, 2025, from 4:00 to 8:00pm. This event was sponsored by FRYSC, City of Flemingsburg, ABC, FC Interagency/Early Childhood Council, and Tourism.

Many Fleming County parents and children took advantage of the event, which featured a give-away of school supplies from 4:00 to 6:00pm, and fun activities, from 5:00 to 8:00pm, which included a dunking booth, foam fun, DJ, inflatables, a game truck, food trucks, and so much more.

The City of Flemingsburg posted on their Facebook page...

"Thank You to Our Community! On behalf of the City of Flemingsburg, we would like to extend our deepest gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of our back-to-school bash!

To those who donated, volunteered their time and talents, worked diligently behind the scenes, and attended in support — your efforts and generosity are truly appreciated. It is through your dedication that we are able to create meaningful experiences that brings our community together.

I am proud to call Flemingsburg home, and even more proud of the spirit of unity and service that continues to shine so brightly in our town. Together, we demonstrate the very best of what community means."

Judge-Exec. John Sims, Jr. signs order prohibiting all open burning in Fleming County

Fleming County Judge-Exec. John Sims, Jr., signed an executive order on Monday, Aug. 25, 2025, prohibiting all open burning in Fleming County.

The proclamation reads as follows...

"Due to the current and predicted weather conditions, and the extreme danger of forest fires in Fleming County, I, John Sims, Jr., County Judge-Executive of Fleming County, do hereby issue the following Executive Order, effective Aug. 25, 2025.

All outdoor burning in Fleming County is prohibited.

This prohibition is in effect until this proclamation has been rescinded by public notice. I urge all Fleming County citizens to comply with this proclamation so that we can preserve Fleming County's timber resources."
