showcasing their ability to analyze complex issues and develop innovative solutions. In the Quick Recall competition, Garrard County's team—composed of Mason Seagraves, Parker Woolums, Eli Pevley, Emorie Martin, Josh Wallace, Olivia Wilson, Austin Seagraves, Rylan Browning, and Kai Weaver—emerged as district champions, demonstrating their rapid thinking and strong academic knowledge.

Individual achievements were also a highlight of the competition, with students excelling in multiple subject areas. In Composition, Parker Woolums secured first place, Olivia Wilson placed third, and Kai Weaver finished fifth. In Arts and Humanities, Emorie Martin claimed first place, while Zyn Hacker placed fifth. The Mathematics category saw Mason Seagraves take second place and Austin Seagraves finish third.

The Science category was another strong showing for Garrard County, with Rylan Browning earning first place, Eli Pevley taking second, and Colin Gilberta securing third. In Social Studies, Mason Seagraves placed second, Kai Weaver finished third, and Aaden Faircloth took fourth. In Language Arts, Olivia

Wilson placed third, Parker Woolums finished fourth, and Grayson Brunelle claimed fifth.

With multiple students advancing to the Regional competition in Berea, the team now sets its sights on qualifying for the State tournament. Their success at the district level highlights their dedication, preparation, and strong academic abilities.

Congratulations to the Garrard County High School Academic Team on their outstanding achievements, and best of luck at Regionals.
