

Harmon's Lick News

Luke 2:10,11 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

Dearest, most precious family and friends. I am finding it a bit hard to go from those beautiful words to my usual column and so I will start by repeating these: I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people.

Those words are so soothing and reassuring, I want that to be my Christmas greeting to all of you. I would mention every name of everyone I know, but I don't think there is a font on Pam's new laptop that would allow such frivolity of words from me, in one column.

Christmas is the season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, and the genial flame of charity in the heart. -Washington Irving

I just love going to Wal-Mart in Stanford. The people who work there are good. They are very helpful and friendly. And you meet someone you know, just about every time you go there. The other day I saw this lady at one store and then when I was going through the Christmas isles, at Wal-Mart, I saw her again. We started talking and she told me her name is Barbara and she is the widow of Dale Moore. I knew that. I used to see Barbara around Lancaster and I always thought she was so pretty and she and her husband were such a nice looking couple. Barbara is still so beautiful and she has the honor of having been a teacher for 65 years !!!

Last night (Thursday) we had an awesome, fun time at Angela's house where she had invited us to an ornament party. There was Janeffer, Linda and Melody (Zach's mother and grandmother) , Kayla, Ella Wren and Theo James, Kylee, Brooke and River. Thank you Ang. Your house is so beautiful. The lights and every decoration is and your Christmas vil-lages are amazing. If Carolyn could have been there it would have been a truly best ever get together.

The Sunday School classes at Harmons Lick Free Pentecostal Church celebrated Christmas with a skit and such wonderful music a few nights ago. At one point it was so great I just had to stand up. I think some others did too. Jeanette Pemberton and the other mother's who helped to put this together, did a lovely job. They visited the nursing home at Lancaster the night before.

Nellie, I sure do hope you are doing fine. I found a letter in your most lovely handwriting and you had commented on Ella Wren. She now has a five moths old brother, Theo James and a tiny little cousin, Charlie Ann, just a bit over a month old, who belongs to Jeff and Amanda, Carolyn's son and wife.

Our family keeps growing. I appreciate every prayer you have prayed for them.

I would love for my sisters, my cousins and I to be together and sing Silent Night. That brings back such good memories.

Hi Maddie and all the kids I know and love, I hope Christmas will be the best ever this year for all of you.

Wishing you good tidings of great joy! I hope and pray that each and everyone of you that have ever blessed our family in any way will be blessed over and over.

Todd and Janeffer, I am running out of room here but I hope you two know what you mean to us. What is a neighbor? You two, over and over again.

We send our love and best wishes to family and friends, far and near. Merry Christmas to everyone.

May the peace and beauty of the Christmas season remain with you throughout the year.

Joyce

May God Bless us all.
