Williamstown shuts out Covington Latin 6-0 on Senior Night

BY LILY FABELA
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

It was a night to remember in Williamstown as the Demons closed out their regular season with a dominant 6-0 win over Covington Latin on Senior Night on Oct. 3.

After a challenging season, Williamstown found its rhythm early, fueled by energy from a packed home crowd celebrating the team's seniors, Landon Donaldson, Ian Fox, Gabriel Paloma and Josiah McCain.

Senior Fox led the charge offensively, scoring twice and assisting on two more goals to highlight a well-balanced attack.

Junior Ian Messmore matched his energy, also notching two goals and two assists.

Caiden Howard and Paloma also added two goals.

Donaldson contributed an assist, setting up one of the team's goals that helped set the tone.

The Demons' defense was equally sharp, recording a shutout behind a strong showing from the goal-keeper group, Colt Cook, and Howard, who combined for nine saves.

Their composure and communication helped hold Covington Latin scoreless throughout the match.

The victory marked Williamstown's second win of the season, improving their record to 2-14-1.

The team ends the year with 14 total goals scored.

Lady Braves volleyball has a disappointing week

BY JACKSON UTTER
SPORTS CORRESPONDENT

Over the course of Oct. 7-9, the Grant County Lady Braves volleyball team faced off against Simon Kenton, Boone County and Bracken County. Despite efforts, Grant went 0-3, taking one loss on the road and two at home. With final scores of 1-3, 0-3, and 2-3.

GRANT VS. SIMON KENTON

They first faced district opponent Simon Kenton at the Pioneers' home court Oct. 7. Grant was defeated in the best-of-five sets. While Grant did score a single set win and fought two close losses, the Lady Braves were defeated in the end. Simon Kenton opened the match up with an early victory at 25-20. The Lady Braves then fired back with a hard-fought win at 25-23 to tie the score.

Despite tight scoring and a comeback in the end, the Lady Braves lost the third set 25-23.

This marked the end of significant resistance from Grant; Simon Kenton dominated the final two sets. As the Braves fell onto the defensive, they lost 25-12 and 25-15 to close the match.

GRANT VS. BOONE COUNTY

The Lady Braves faced the Boone County Rebels at home Oct. 8. Sadly, though, Wednesday's matchup did not fare much better. After very tight scoring at the start of the sets, Grant lost steam, and the Rebels pulled away.

This pattern repeated itself as Boone went on runs shortly after the set scores neared halfway. Strong hitting wore down the Lady Braves' defense during the matchup as Grant fell away to the Rebels' offense.

With respective scores of 25-15, 25-16, and 25-12, Boone won all three sets.

GRANT VS. BRACKEN COUNTY

The matchup against Bracken saw the Lady Braves come closest to a win, but Grant ultimately was defeated 2-3 by the Polar Bears.

The Lady Braves took an early lead in the first set, but they lost ground to Bracken as the battle pro-gressed. After earning four points straight, the Polar Bears built a lead.

Grant's tight performance cracked as Bracken built steam for a victory at 25-17.

Meanwhile, the second set saw the Lady Braves maintain a solid lead at 17-12 with great defense and movement keeping them ahead. However, as the set neared its end, Bracken's offense found its rhythm and cut away at the Grant lead.

In contrast, the third set was a decisive win for the Lady Braves with a 25-15 final score.

While the fourth set was also a victory for Grant, it was a very tight war despite Bracken holding a slim lead for the majority of the set; the Braves held on in the final points to steal the win.

Sadly, though, the final set of the showdown would not end in the Lady Braves' favor with the Polar Bears digging in. The final match saw Bracken earn the overall win as they defeated Grant at 15-9.
