EMPOWERMENT

spirit is there in every boy; it has to be discovered and brought to light." That spirit still exists. But somewhere along the line, many boys are losing their way—and we're not doing enough to help them find it again.

I know my great-grandfather would be proud of the opportunities my daughter has today—the very ones he once dreamed of for his girls. But I suspect he'd also want to ensure those same doors remain open for his great-grandsons.

Empowering girls and supporting boys aren't mutually exclusive. We can—and must—do both. The next chapter of American progress shouldn't be exclusive to one gender; it should be co-authored.
