

COUGARS

Late in the third quarter, McLean’s offense once again found its rhythm as Bolden hit Walker for a 54-yard touchdown through the air—one of two receiving scores for Walker, who also caught both of Bolden’s touchdown passes on the night. Bolden went 2-for-4 passing for 54 yards and two touchdowns, continuing to show improved timing and command in the pocket.

McLean’s defense sealed the win early in the fourth quarter when Osborne, already with one defensive touchdown, stepped in front of a pass and returned it for a pick-six. The score marked Osborne’s second touchdown of the night and pushed McLean’s lead to 50-20 after Walker converted the final two-point attempt. Fort Knox added a late rushing touchdown and conversion to bring the final to 50-28.

On defense, the Cougars were led by junior linebacker Hunter Stratton, who broke his own school record for tackles in a single game with 26. Stratton’s performance surpassed his previous mark of 23, set last season, and anchored a defensive unit that totaled 83 tackles on the night. He also contributed offensively with a touchdown and a two-point conversion.

McLean’s pass rush was equally disruptive, finishing with seven sacks for 32 yards lost. Jackson Reynolds recorded four of those sacks, while Reggie Tate added one and a half. Stratton, Jo Jo Hardison, Zayden Turner and Everett Sandefur each chipped in a half-sack as the defense kept constant pressure on the Fort Knox backfield.

Osborne and Sandefur were instrumental in forcing turnovers, while Carter Howard and Jo Jo Hardison provided steady tackling support in the middle of the field. Kicker Trey Lile continued his consistency on special teams, booting eight kickoffs for 358 yards, including one touchback.

Offensively, the Cougars finished with 360 total yards, 297 on the ground and 63 through the air, while averaging an impressive 11 yards per carry.

The win pushed McLean County to 4-4 on the season and provided a momentum boost heading into one of the toughest matchups of the year. The Cougars will travel to Owensboro Catholic on Friday, Oct. 24, for a district showdown against the top-ranked Aces.

Owensboro Catholic, boasting the highest RPI in the state at the Class 2A level, is a regional powerhouse. Since 1998, McLean has faced Catholic 19 times, winning just once, in 2019, when Wagner’s team pulled off a 37-36 victory in the Gridiron Bowl.

While the Aces enter as heavy favorites, the Cougars’ performance against Fort Knox showed a team capable of executing on both sides of the ball and playing with confidence. If McLean can carry that same energy into Owensboro, they’ll have a chance to make noise against one of Kentucky’s best.

Kickoff at Steele Stadium is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday.

regular-season appearance, while junior Abbigail Shivers anchored the back row with 14 digs and a team-high eight aces.

McLean County returned to action Monday night against Muhlenberg County in the opening round of the district tournament.

The Lady Cougars end their regular season on a positive note, carrying a renewed sense of confidence into postseason play as they continue to build toward sustained success in the program.
