The Henry County girls soccer team shut out Owen County 3-0 in the 31st District Tournament semifinals at home on Monday, Oct. 6.

The Lady Cats swept the regular season series against the Lady Rebels by scores of 1-0 and 3-1. In Monday's semifinal matchup, Henry County took an early lead and never surrendered control to advance to the championship game on Wednesday night against Carroll County.

The Lady Cats attacked early and often offensively to set the tone for the game. Several Henry County players had quality looks at the goal within the first five minutes, but each attempt was halted by Owen County's defense.

However, the Lady Cats broke through around the 35:22 mark to take the lead.

After Owen County deflected Henry County's initial shot attempt, Emma Harmon gained control of the ball near the left side of the goal and drained a fairly open shot to give the Lady Cats a 1-0 edge.

The Lady Cats maintained their offensive aggression as the first half progressed, earning a number of shot opportunities.

Sidney Arnold made a few strong pushes toward the goal, and Ella Richmond and Lucy Kirk added a couple close looks off a free kick with about 28 minutes on the clock.

Henry County eventually extended its lead to 2-0 with a goal by Isabelle Soto from short range with around 25 minutes left in the first half.

Owen County kept battling defensively to shut down a few more shot attempts by the Lady Cats.

Goalkeeper Brianna Galvan saved several opportunities, including a close one-on-one opportunity with about 15 minutes remaining in the half, to keep the margin at 2-0 for nearly 20 minutes.

Lady Rebels before adding another goal to its lead with under 10 minutes to play in the first half.

Richmond sent a corner kick into play at the 9:10 mark, and Owen County knocked the ball into its own goal to push the Lady Cat advantage to 3-0.

The Lady Cat defense matched the offensive intensity late in the half, as Zoe Beam saved a promising free kick by Allie Hertwick and another shot attempt by the Lady Rebels, to leave the margin at 3-0 heading into halftime.

Out of the break, Henry County looked to further its momentum and stayed aggressive on both sides of the ball.

Rylei Westbrook had a pair of shots saved early in the half by Galvan, while Richmond, Kirk and Arnold contributed numerous runs at the goal and close shot attempts as the half progressed.

Despite Henry County controlling possession, Owen County stood firm against each attack to hold the Lady Cats off the board.

Galvan saved a promising shot by Richmond from the left at the last second to prevent a Lady Cat goal and snagged a couple more looks later in the second half to keep the Lady Rebels within reach.

Owen County picked up the intensity offensively in the final 10 minutes in an attempt to cut into the lead, but the Lady Cat defense held off each run to preserve the shutout.
