COUNTY TAXPAYERS' NOTICE

McCracken County's 2025 property tax bills will begin arriving in mail boxes November 1, 2025. Taxes will become due and payable to the McCracken County Sheriff's Office beginning on that day and will be payable based upon the following schedule:

November 1 – November 30, 2025 December 1 – December 31, 2025 January 2 – January 31, 2026 February 1 – April 15, 2026 2% Discount Face Value 5% Penalty 10% Penalty + 10% Fee

All tax bills not paid to our office by the close of business on April 15, 2026 will be transferred as delinquent to the McCracken County Clerk for further collection proceedings. Additional penalties and interest will be assessed to all delinquent tax bills paid to the County Clerk's office.

Payment Instruction: If you do not receive your tax bill within the first few days of November, you can find your bill on our office's website or contact us to request a duplicate. Office hours for receiving payments in person are from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM Monday thru Friday. It is important to bring your tax bills with you when paying in our office. If mailing payment, please include the remit portion (bottom-half) of your tax bill and record your tax bill number on your check, made payable to the McCracken County Sheriff.

Additional Information Regarding Tax Information and Payment

Tax Bill Changes or Disputes: The sheriff's office only has the statutory responsibility of collecting the amounts charged on your tax bill. Property assessment concerns should be directed to the McCracken County Property Valuation Administrator's office, and any address changes can be made on their website at mccrackenpva.com. Concerns regarding the assessment of your 911 fee would need to be discussed with the McCracken County Judge/Executive's office.

Electronic Payments: In addition to cash and check payments, your tax bill may be paid with credit or debit card. Please note, however, a consumer convenience fee will be charged to your banking or credit card account when using electronic payment methods and will show as a separate transaction on your monthly statement. This fee is calculated as a percentage of your tax bill amount and is charged by Intellipay Payment Processing. The sheriff's office does not receive any portion of these convenience fees.

Online Payments and Bill Search: We offer the ability to view and pay your tax bill(s) online by visiting our website at mccrackencountysheriff. com and clicking on the "Property Taxes" link. The same convenience fees noted for electronic payments also apply to online payments. E-check payments are also available online and have a flat $2.50 fee regardless of the tax amount being paid.

For further assistance with other inquires or concerns, please feel free to contact our office during normal business hours at (270) 444-4719.

Ryan Norman, McCracken County Sheriff
