return defense did a wonderful job bringing down the return man at the seven-yard line. The Bulldogs ran over six minutes off the clock as they marched down the field and scored on a seven-yard run by Butler.

The next time they had the ball following a Bullitt Central punt, the Bulldogs went 53 yards on five plays including a 35-yard pass from Butler to Rakale Johnson that put the ball at the two-yard line. On the next play, Dymetrius Taylor scored the touchdown.

the field for a 71 yard touchdown run. Bullitt Central, down 20-0, roared back. Butler was penalized 15 yards for his touchdown celebration so the Cougars started the next drive near midfield. The big play was a 32 yard quarterback draw by Lee that put the Cougars at the Fairdale 15-yard line. Lee ran for seven-yards on the next play and then Lee ran for seven-yards before rolling out and hitting Probus for the touchdown.

Three plays later, Bullitt Central got the ball back on another strip search at midfield. It took the Cougars just a little longer this time. The Cougars used ten plays to cover 50 yards with the big play being a 17 yard pass from Lee to Kaden Nusz, a player returning to the field after being hurt in the first practice of the summer.

The touchdown came on a one-yard run by Morris.

Tripp O'Brien, as he would do after each of the Cougar touchdowns, converted the extra point.

That Bullitt Central touchdown came with 2:02 remaining before halftime, but it was far from the end of the first half scoring.
