Starting at their own 19yard line, Fairdale had both a 40 yard pass and a 26 yard completion to move to the Bullitt Central 15-yard line. On the next play, Butler lofted a high pass that Djawn Richards hauled in for the touchdown.

The touchdown came with 38 seconds remaining before halftime. Fairdale opted to kick it hard and along the ground. The ball ricochet off a Bullitt Central player and was recovered by the Bulldogs at the 44-yard line. Fairdale gained 15 yards on the first play and then there were back-to-back roughing the passer and pass interference calls that incensed the Bullitt Central sideline.

Those two penalties moved the ball to the seven-yard line. After an incomplete pass, Butler connected with Richards for the touchdown as the clock ran out.
