

Apply now for special waterfowl hunts at state fish hatcheries

Quota hunts available to youths/mentors and mobility-impaired hunters

BY KENTUCKY DEPARTMENT OF FISH AND WILDLIFE RESOURCES

Online applications will be taken Nov. 1-15, 2025, for youth and mobility-impaired waterfowl quota hunts at two state-owned fish hatcheries near Frankfort and Morehead, Kentucky. Hunts begin Jan. 3, 2026, and recur each Saturday and Sunday through January.

There are five waterfowl hunting blinds available at Minor E. Clark Fish Hatchery in Rowan County and two at Peter W. Pfeiffer Fish Hatchery in Franklin County. Drawn hunters must provide their own decoys, place them and retrieve their own birds.

Interested youth or mobility-impaired waterfowl hunters may apply online for one or more of the special hunts by visiting the Kentucky Fish and Wildlife homepage (fw.ky.gov) and clicking on the "Hunting" tab, followed by the "Quota Hunts" link on the center tab at the top of the webpage. Applications must be submitted before midnight (Eastern) on Nov. 15, 2025. Hunt dates in 2026 are Jan. 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, 18, 24, 25 and 31.

Youths age 15 or younger may apply for these quota hunts. Each youth hunter must be accompanied by a mentor age 18 or older. The mentor may hunt as well. Each youth may only have one adult mentor. However, a mentor may have two youth hunters in the blind, or two adult mentors may hunt with two youth hunters in a blind.

Mobility-impaired hunters who are drawn for a hunt may only have one assistant in the blind with them. The assistant may also hunt.

Drawn hunters will be notified by mail in late November, receiving a quota hunt permit with the date or dates for which they were drawn, detailed maps and other instructions concerning the hunt.

Before going afield, each waterfowl hunter must complete the annual Harvest Information Program (HIP) survey in their My Profile account at fw.ky.gov then record their HIP survey confirmation number on their license.

One win from first World Series, Mariners send Gilbert to mound in ALCS Game 6 at Toronto

BY IAN HARRISON ASSOCIATED PRESS

TORONTO — The Seattle Mariners have never been this close to reaching the World Series.

It still feels distant to pitcher Logan Gilbert.

"We're still a long ways away," Gilbert said Saturday, the day after a 6-2 comeback victory in Game 5 that put Seattle one win away from its first American League pennant. "We're nine long innings away from where we want to be, and I think everybody gets that."

Whether it takes nine innings or 15, as it did in the AL Division Series clincher, Gilbert and the Mariners will get their shot at the pennant on Sunday, taking a 3-2 lead into AL Championship Series Game 6. The winner of the best-of-seven series faces the Los Angeles Dodgers starting Friday.

"It's huge," Gilbert said. "It's been such a long year. Just to get to this point is amazing. But to be the one to have the ball, you grow up dreaming of moments like this, and you don't know how many you'll get over the course of your career. Some guys never get this. So it's a really big deal."
