

PAST

Continued from Page 9

the First Methodist Church will be glad to wash your car Saturday or Monday for $1.00. Work is guaranteed. Proceeds will go to M.Y.F. projects.

-A revival will begin May 27 at Burnett's Chapel Methodist Church, off the Somerset and Mt. Vernon Road on state road 934, Miss Edna Baumberger, pastor of the church, announced this week. The Rev. Ralph Wesley is the evangelist for the meeting and will hold services each night at 8:00 p.m. (CDT). Miss Mary Francis Baker, Somerset, will be pianist for the meeting. The public is invited to attend.

-The Carol, Cherub, and Celestial Choirs of the First Baptist Church will present a program of sacred music, and have a service of recognition this evening at 7:30 p.m. The choirs, made up of children's voices between the ages of 4-13, will receive Choir Pins, awards for perfect attendance, and other merits. At this time recognition will also be given to those promoted to the older age groups. This program will culminate the three choirs' activities until August. The Carol Choir is under the direction of Mr. William Cropper, and the Cherub and Celestial Choirs are under the direction of Mrs. William Cropper.

-Vacation Bible School will begin at the Langdon Street Baptist Church Monday, May 28, and continue through Friday, June 8. The school will be conducted each morning from 9:00 to 11:00 o'clock, and will be climaxed on closing day with a picnic for the entire enrollment. The staff for this year's school includes Margaret Evans, Mrs. Goldia Bugg, Betty Ann Bugg, Myrtle Meece, Mamie Francis, Myra Ellen Stringer, Geayneal Roberts, Sandra Sue Love, Helen Esther Turner, Lottie Muse, Diana Kay Loveless, Mrs. Noah Waddle and Mrs. W.E. Cross.

-John Huter of Sloans Valley was converted in a recent revival meeting at the Sloans Valley Church. He was united with the church by profession of faith on April 23 and was baptized the following Sunday. Mr. Huter, 77, is a retired farmer and a veteran of the Spanish American War.

THE STORK REPORTS FROM CITY HOSPITAL:

-A son, born May 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Brake of Burnside. — A son, born May 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Leland Black of Somerset. — A son, born May 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Delotus Flynn of West Somerset. — A son, born May 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Verthell Wesley of Science Hill. — A son, born May 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Ray Meece of Somerset. — A son, born May 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Ethard Jasper of Cain's Store.

NEW...!

G-E MAGNETIC DOOR
closes automatically...

PRICED RIGHT!

BIG 10-Cu.-Ft. G-E... with DELUXE FEATURES

The amazing new General Electric Magnetic Door closes automatically, silently, and surely... has a more efficient seal... and the G-E Alnico Magnets will last indefinitely. Get Magnetic Door and other famous deluxe G-E convenience features in this big refrigerator... priced right!

- full-width freezer
- adjustable shelves
- egg rack
- butter compartment
- adjustable door shelves
- porcelain vegetable drawers

Model LB-10N

only $249⁹⁵
(and your old refrigerator)

THE BEST BUY IN TOWN... DON'T MISS IT. EASY TERMS!

W. D. GOVER

ENGAGEMENTS AND WEDDINGS:

-Miss Cynthia Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Jones, will become the bride of Mr. Raymond A. Perez, son of Mr. and Mrs. S.V. Perez, Massillon, Ohio, Saturday, June 2, at 4:00 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Perez is teaching in Franklin, Ohio at present. No formal invitations to the wedding have been sent, and all friends of the family are cordially invited to attend.

-The wedding of Miss Carol Sue Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Evans, and Mr. Jackie Vaught, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie E. Vaught of Dabney, took place Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on College Street. The bride chose for her wedding a pale blue linen dress with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of white carnations. Miss Patricia Evans was her sister's only attendant. Mr. David Sowders served as best man. The bride attended Somerset High School. The groom is a graduate of Pulaski County High School and is employed at the Chub Minnow Farm at Burnside. After a short wedding trip south the young couple will be at home at 424 College Street.

-Linzie Price of Dahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lue Price, and Emma Faye Sears of Stab, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Sears, obtained a marriage license May 18.

-Jackie Keith Vaught of Route 3, Somerset, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vaught, and Carol Sue Evans of Somerset, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Evans, obtained a marriage license May 19.

-Bradley R. Pennington of Waynesburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Pennington, and Clara Wesley of Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wesley, obtained a marriage license May 22.

-Ralph Lee Whitaker of Squib, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Whitaker, and Margaret Ann Nolan of Acorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Nolan, obtained a marriage license May 22.

OBITUARIES:

-Josh Alfred "Bud" Bell, 74-year-old retired Southern Railroad worker, died Sunday at his home in Saline. He had been in poor health for several years. He had lived in this community for the past 35 years. He married Mattie Brown and eight children were born to this marriage. Mr. Bell is survived by his wife, five daughters, three sons, 45 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Oak Hill Baptist Church. Burial was in the Oak Hill cemetery.

-J.W. Smith, 20, of Elrod, an employee of the Southern Belle Dairy plant, died Sunday in Somerset City Hospital, following an illness of 11 days. A lifelong resident of Elrod, he was a member of the Sunnyside Baptist Church for several years, attending services faithfully. He is survived by his parents, two sisters, and four brothers. Funeral services were held Tuesday in Burnett's Chapel Methodist Church. Burial was in Burnett's Chapel cemetery.

-Harvey Willis Groves, 62, U.S. Army retired, died Sunday at his home here after an extended illness. Mr. Groves was a member of the First Methodist Church for many years. He was also an active member of the Jr. Order of American Mechanics and the American Legion. He is survived by his wife, three sisters, and one brother. Funeral services were held Tuesday in the chapel of the Somerset Undertaking Co. funeral home. Burial was in the Somerset cemetery.

-J.T. Calhoun, 83, died Monday, May 14, at his home at Nancy. He had been ill 12 days. He professed faith in Christ some 20 years ago and united with the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church. He kept his membership at that church until death. He was united in marriage to Millie Jane Pettyjohn and eight children were born to this union. Mrs. Calhoun and two children preceded him in death. Later he married Ethel Meece who survives him. Mr. Calhoun is survived by his wife, three sons, three daughters, 36 grandchildren, 63 great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren, two brothers, and four sisters. Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 16, at the Chesterview Baptist Church.

-Ira R. Allen, manager of the Vogue Theater, Louisville, from 1942 until he retired a month ago with a heart ailment, died at 2:25 p.m. Saturday at his home in Louisville. He was 46. A native of Somerset, he was a member of George Washington Masonic Lodge, Kosair Shrine, and Scottish Rite. Survivors are his wife, a brother, and two sisters. The funeral was held Monday morning at Ratterman's in Louisville. Burial was in the Somerset cemetery Monday afternoon.

-Sundown services for Mrs. Emma Kridler Young, 78, were conducted at 7 o'clock Saturday night at the W.R. Milward Mortuary in Lexington. The body was brought to Somerset Sunday afternoon where graveside services in the Somerset cemetery were held. Mrs. Young died Friday afternoon at Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington after a five days' illness. She was the widow of DeForest Young, who was engaged in the grocery business here for many years. A former businesswoman in Somerset, she had been a resident of Lexington for the past eight years. She was devoted to her church and was regular in attendance. Her simple faith and trust in God and her cheerful disposition endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. In addition to her daughter, she is survived by three sisters, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

THIS WEEK IN LOCAL SPORTS:

-The Babe Ruth League opener found the Kiwanis Club edging by Southern Bell Dairy Thursday. With one out in the eighth inning, Bodie, Kiwanis third-baseman, blasted a home run to supply the winning margin. Benny Shadoan struck out 15 to become the winning pitcher. He walked three and gave up seven hits. Neil Smith struck out seven, walked one and allowed only two hits to be tabbed with the loss. Jack Ruffner started but went only 2 innings, during which time he whiffed five, walked 10, gave up two hits and seven runs. Kelly socked two hits in four tries for the Kiwanians. Ruffner earned a single and double in four trips for Southern Belle.

-Sunday afternoon, Hopkins Field looked like a race track as 54 men beat it around the four-stop diamond in a slugfest between the Fair Store Knights and the Standard Oil Oilers. The Oilers came out on top of the 31-23 score. Wilson was the winning pitcher Sunday, although Gay, Garrett and McGuire also took turns at hurling. Mitchell received credit for the loss, with Baker assisting in the relief role. At the plate, Allen hit three for five and Trammell placed two hits in five trips, scoring four times for the Fair Store squad. Sears was two for three for the Oilers. Neikirk came home five times and Graybeal scored seven times for the Standard Oil team.

-Gerald Monds, Ernest James and Philip Maguire represented Somerset High School in the state track meet at Lexington Friday. Maguire was the only boy to place. He was fifth in the low hurdles.

-The Briar Jumpers ended their first year of link play by placing fourth in the regional tournament held at Middlesboro Monday. Members of Coach Ed Tucker's team are David Aurand, Wayne Moore, Philip Maguire, Wayne Smith, Bobby Elliott and Robbie Nelson. Moore led the way with a 181, Nelson and Maguire each shot a 183 and Elliott shot a 208.

-The Russell County Lakers avenged their tournament loss to Somerset by defeating the Jumpers 6-3 Monday on Hopkins Field. The Jumpers got all their runs in the first frame. Carleton Godsey led the Somerset High School hitting with two singles in three trips to the plate. Gerald Phelps, Dickie Baugh, and Tommy Adams also got hits. Phelps stole five bases for Somerset. Baugh, the Somerset hurler, gave up four hits, six runs, struck out 10 and walked seven. The Jumpers made six errors in the game.

ADS FROM LOCAL BUSINESSES:

-The First and Farmers National Bank - Regardless of how much money you want, or for what useful purpose, it costs less to borrow it from your bank. When you borrow from this Bank you are also building your local credit standing.

-Truesdell Wilson Sales & Service - Only the year-ahead Chrysler brings you the first full-size 4-door hardtop! More head room, hip room, leg room than any other 4-door hardtop.

-W.D. Gover - The amazing new General Electric refrigerator Magnetic Door closes automatically, silently, and surely! Only $249.95 and your old refrigerator. The best buy in town. Don't miss it!

-Somerset One Hour Cleaners - Now is the time to spring houseclean your slipcovers, bedspreads, curtains, blankets, draperies and quilts with the amazing new Martinizing process, the process that leaves your cleaning brighter, cleaner, odorless and germ-free.

-Kroger - Cup-O-Cheer coffee, 59 cents/1 lb. tin. Sliced bacon, 39 cents/lb. Bread, 17 cents/loaf. Cantaloupes, 29 cents each. Large tomatoes, 39 cents/lb.

SHOWING THIS WEEK AT THE VIRGINIA THEATRE AND KENTUCKY THEATRE:

Terror at Midnight - Gung Ho! - Dead Man's Eyes - Son of Frankenstein - Meet the Keystone Kops - The Black Dakotas - The Yearling - A Man Without a Star - Phfff - Prisoner of Casbah - Pa & Ma Kettle in Waikiki - Smoke Signal - Miracle in the Rain - The Trouble with Harry - Rebel Without a Cause - The Scarlet Hour - The Court Jester - A Day of Fury - Crashing Las Vegas

BOARD OF ADJUSTMENTS
REGULARLY SCHEDULED PUBLIC HEARING AND MEETING FOR A VARIANCE

AT THE REQUEST OF HANSEL PROPERTIES, LLC, A PUBLIC HEARING WILL BE HELD IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBERS AT THE SOMERSET ENERGY CENTER, 306 E MT VERNON ST, SOMERSET, KY, ON MAY 26, 2026, AT 5:30 PM FOR THE PURPOSE OF REQUESTING A VARIANCE PERMIT FOR: VARIANCE FOR A 5.5' SETBACK ON FRONT OF LOT

PROPERTY LOCATION:
UNDEVELOPED PROPERTY ON PARK AVE.
CURRENT ZONE: R-2
PARCEL ID # 061-4-3-66
REFERENCED IN DEED BOOK 1087 PAGE 640 (3)

All of which can be referenced/found in the Planning & Zoning Department or at the Pulaski County Clerk's Office.

HUGE MOVING SALE

Rain or Shine!!

1021 Winding Ridge Drive Somerset
Friday 22nd and Saturday 23rd
Furniture, tvs, dishes, antiques, tools, golf clubs, workout equipment, patio furniture and much more!

ATTENTION

2-story home and garage available to approved non-profit church or business
CALL 606-305-2254 FOR DETAILS