Supporting Farm Fresh Efforts

Mercer Chamber Host Ribbon Cutting for the Mercer County Activity Center

The Mercer Chamber of Commerce recently held a ribbon cutting for the Mercer County Activity Center at 1475 Louisville Road following a reorganization of services at the Blue Grass Community Action Partnership facility. The Activity Center serves local seniors in one section of the building, while Mercer County Head Start occupies the other. Seniors at the center are excited to share the building with the Head Start children, creating a unique multigenerational setting. For more information about programming, call 859-734-9549.

Mercer Chamber Host Ribbon Cutting for Blue Grass Headstart

The Mercer Chamber of Commerce recently held a ribbon cutting for Blue Grass Community Action Partnership's Mercer County Head Start at 1475 Louisville Road. The ceremony marked a reorganization of services within the facility, which now houses Head Start in one section and the Mercer County Activity Center for seniors in another. The shared location brings two generations together under one roof, with Activity Center participants excited to welcome the young Head Start students to the building. For more information about programming, call 859-734-9549.
