

E'town Lions gather for March meeting

Kevin Tse was recognized by the Elizabethtown Lions Club as the Elizabethtown High School Student of the Month at its March 17 meeting. Tse will graduate in May from EHS and Elizabethtown Community and Technical College and is considering his options with several universities and plans to study molecular, cellular developmental biology. Tse is the son of Tony and Vivian Tse. Joining Tse is Lion Jim Weise, who introduced Tse and presented his award, and his mother.

The Elizabethtown Lions Club celebrated St Patrick's Day with some spirited shenanigans at the March 17 meeting. After a dinner meal and club business, five Lions had some fun and participated in the best dressed contest with the prospect of winning $25 donated by Lion Jim Weise. Those in their best dressed Irish attire were Lions Jim Weise, Nicole Smith, Debra Dunn, Adrienne Mabe and Philip Duff. Those Lion members who did not participate determined Lion Philip Duff best represented the holiday by his flashy flair and showing off his knees. After winning $25, Lion Duff donated his prize back to the club to benefit others in need.

Lily Stith was recognized by the Elizabethtown Lions Club as the Central Hardin High School Student of the Month at its March 17 meeting. Stith will graduate in May from CHHS and EC3 and plans to attend the University of Kentucky and study psychology. Stith is the daughter of Robbie and Kristy Stith and has three sisters. Joining Stith is Lion Heather Dennis, who introduced her and presented her award, and her parents.

Tristen Hutchens was recognized by the Elizabethtown Lions Club as the John Hardin High School Student of the Month at its March 17 meeting. Hutchens will graduate in May from JHHS and EC3 and plans to attend the University of Kentucky and enter the pre-dental medical pathway. Hutchens is the daughter of Chris and Amber Hutchens. Joining Hutchens is Lion Heather Dennis, who introduced Hutchens and presented her award, and her parents.

Christi Gage, a Lion and an orientation and mobility specialist at Envision Blind Sports, receives a $3,000 check from the Elizabethtown Lions Club members Christopher and Patricia Moore. The Moores, who organized the New Year's Day 5K Dash on Jan. 1, served as co-chairmen for the event. The Lions Club collaborated with Envision Blind Sports for the Dash event and the donation comes from the money raised during the fundraiser. This donation will help send school-age children from Hardin County who are blind or visually impaired to the Envision Blind Sports Camp in Erie, Pennsylvania, this summer. A big thank you to all the runners and walkers who showed up early on a cold Jan. 1 and made this event and fundraiser successful.
