

CU grabs top seed in women's soccer

BY CKNJ SPORTS

Campbellsville clinches share of MSC title, top tournament seed with 3-2 victory. Campbellsville University secured a share of the Mid-South Conference regular-season women's soccer championship and the top seed in the conference tournament. The Tigers secured championship positioning Saturday by scoring three first-half goals to overcome an early deficit and defeat Cumberland University 3-2 on the road in Lebanon, Tennessee. CU shares the regular-season title with Lindsey Wilson and Cumberlands, earning the No. 1 tournament seed through a conference goal differential of plus-15 under the tiebreaker's four-goal-per-match cap. Three goals in 9 minutes, 40 seconds reversed the match. Julia Ogren, Marta Prieto, and Oddny Helgadottir scored between 23:47 and 33:27, turning a 1-0 deficit into a two-goal advantage. Helgadottir supplied the eventual match-winner off the bench. She entered at 31:04 and scored 2 minutes, 23 seconds later on her only shot. Prieto and Ogren continued their scoring production. Prieto recorded her 14th goal of the season, while Ogren added her 13th. Wilma Gidlof supplied Campbellsville's lone assist.

Sydney Hall protected the second-half advantage. Hall made five saves, including three after Cumberland pulled within one, to help CU withstand a 19-shot attack. Campbellsville made its opportunities count. Despite trailing 19-17 in shots and 4-1 in corner kicks, the Tigers held a 10-7 advantage in shots on goal and improved to 11-2-2 overall and 5-1 in conference play. The MSC Championship Tournament begins Oct. 28. As the top seed, Campbellsville receives a first-round bye and will host its second-round match next week against either Cumberland or Bethel. Game time and date have not been finalized. In MSC men's action, CU finished the season 3-8-5 and holds the No. 6 seed. The Tigers were scheduled to play Bethel on the road Wednesday in a quarterfinal match. Cumberland U earned the men's tournament bye.

CU freshman impresses in early-season matchups

BY CKNJ SPORTS

Campbellsville erased a 23-point deficit to win its women's basketball season opener. Based on her first college games ever, Cariann Williams was named the Mid-South Conference Women's Basketball Player of the Week, conference officials announced Monday.

Williams averaged 18.5 points and 7.5 rebounds to help Campbellsville to two wins in the Warrior Classic in Fort Wayne, Indiana. She shot 70.8 percent from the field over the two games. The freshman center from Brownsville scored 21 points on 10-for-15 shooting in the rout of Cornerstone (Mich.). She closed the weekend with a 16-point, 10-rebound double-double in the 84-80 overtime victory over Indiana Tech. CU erased a 23-point deficit in its rally to win and protected its preseason No. 5 ranking. Talynne Shearer, a junior from Rockcastle County, finished with a team-high 17 points, seven steals and six assists, scoring 14 points in the fourth quarter and overtime while going 3-for-3 from beyond the arc. Her 3-pointer with 36 seconds remaining tied the game at 72. Lainey Johnson scored 11 of her 14 points in the fourth quarter and overtime, including six in the extra period. She went 4-for-4 at the free-throw line in overtime and added five rebounds and four assists. Campbellsville forced eight fourth-quarter turnovers, collecting six steals while outscoring Indiana Tech 25-10 to erase a 15-point deficit entering the period. Dea Bradley contributed 16 points and four rebounds, including nine third-quarter points that helped Campbellsville begin reducing Indiana Tech's largest lead. Kinsley Molden supplied six points off the bench, connecting on both of her 3-point attempts. Johnson also led all scorers in the 101-55 pounding of Cornerstone to open the season. She had 25 points, adding six rebounds, three assists, three steals and two blocks in just 28 minutes as CU opened up its bench in the one-sided win. The CU team is in Missouri to play College of the Ozarks on Thursday and plays Williams Baptist College in Arkansas on Friday. On Nov. 9, CU again is on the road to face Indiana University Southeast. After five road games, the Lady Tigers will welcome their first opponent at Powell Athletic Center on Nov. 13 when Indiana University Columbus visits.

Ginger High Colvin, a 1990 Campbellsville graduate, enters her 19th season as head coach of the women's basketball team. The CU men's basketball team was set to open play Tuesday night against West Virginia University Institute of Technology. Looming on the early-season portion of the schedule is at Nov. 11 trip to Diddle Arena in Bowling Green to take on Western Kentucky University.

For fourth time, MSC recognizes Vest

BY CKNJ SPORTS

It is another week and another honor for Campbellsville University ace setter Kati Vest. For the fourth time this season and second consecutive week, the Mid-South Conference recognized Vest as its Setter of the Week. CU is 22-8 on the season after recording victories last week against Georgetown College and Brescia University. Vest averaged 10 assists per set and totaled 70 assists to help CU win both matches last week. She recorded 32 assists and five block assists in a sweep over Georgetown. Vest added 38 assists in a four-set win over Brescia and finished the week with 12 digs, six block assists and five kills. Vest is a sophomore who played volleyball at Central Hardin High School.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing as required by Section 147(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") will be held telephonically at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Standard Time on November 5, 2026 by the Kentucky Bond Development Corporation (the "Issuer"), concerning the proposed issuance, in one or more series or sub-series, of up to $350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Issuer's Revenue Bonds, Series 2026 (Louisville Sustainable Energy Partners) (the "Bonds"), being "qualified 501(c)(3) bonds," as defined in Section 145 of the Code, pursuant to a resolution or resolutions of the Issuer.

The proceeds of the Bonds will be loaned to Louisville Sustainable Energy Partners LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes (the "Borrower"), the sole member of which is Genesis Capital Finance Corporation, a Delaware non-stock corporation and an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. The Borrower will transfer all or a portion of the proceeds of the Bonds to UofL Health, Inc., a Kentucky not-for-profit corporation and an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or one or more of its affiliates (collectively, "UofL Health"), and the Borrower and/or UofL Health will use the proceeds of the Bonds to: (1) pay or reimburse the costs of the acquisition, development, construction, improvement and equipping of certain energy related improvements, including but not limited to, upgrading and replacing central utility plant assets, upgrading building automation systems, upgrading interior and exterior lighting, installing solar arrays, upgrading, retro-commissioning and optimizing HVAC system performance, implementing energy savings measures, and making other infrastructure improvements at certain hospitals and related facilities owned and/or operated by UofL Health, and/or certain of its affiliates located in the Commonwealth of Kentucky (the "Energy Projects"); (2) pay or reimburse the prior payment of all or a portion of the costs of acquiring, constructing, renovating, equipping, or otherwise improving certain UofL Health hospitals and other healthcare facilities, as further described below (the "Non-Energy Projects" and, together with the Energy Projects, the "Projects"); (3) pay interest on the Bonds as permitted by the Code and Sections 103.200 to 103.285, inclusive, of the Kentucky Revised Statutes (the "Act"); (4) provide working capital to UofL Health as permitted by the Code and the Act; and (5) pay or reimburse the prior payment of certain costs of issuing the Bonds.

All of the Projects will be located in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and owned or operated by UofL Health.

Energy Projects:

The proceeds of the Bonds in the respective maximum principal amounts set forth below will be used by UofL Health for financing, refinancing, or reimbursing all or a portion of the costs of acquiring, developing, constructing, renovating, remodeling, equipping, building out or otherwise implementing certain energy-related improvements and making other infrastructure improvements to hospitals and other healthcare facilities located on the following healthcare campuses:

(a) Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, generally located at 1850 Bluegrass Ave, Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky ($7,000,000 maximum principal amount);
