

Not your normal Days of Our Lives Recap

Because of stupidity and foolish decisions, the Titan business is about to go Kerplunk. Sink. Sank. Sunk, not to be confused with Stink, Stank, Stunk in the Grinch moive. EJ bought their loan and is calling it in to be paid. All of the freeloaders at Kiriakis mansion are having to pack up and move amongst the sniffles and tinkly music. Phillip Kiriakis, who had a role in sinking the business, wants to make a mature and sensible move for once in his life. He asks girlfriend Gabi Hernandez DiMera for $5 million to gamble and get their money back.

Gabi says, “Ok.” Maggie Horton Kiriakis returns home with really dry hair and split ends. She is on to Phillip. She knows he doesn’t have a leg to stand on. Well, one. The other is prosthetic. None of the people working at Titan stop to think that they might actually have made some money if they didn’t dress up in suits every day and hang out at restaurants and pubs or in Dr Marlena Evans’s pshchiatrist office instead of going to work. Cat Green is wearing what appears to be a snake dress. Not a snake print dress, but an actual snake skin from a teeny garter snake. On closer inspection, it appears to be paisley. Her mouth still hangs open a lot like a fly trap. She and EJ bond and hug, both making twitchy faces like a rabbit chewing on a clover leaf. Maggie tells Xander he did everything he could to save the estate and tries to comfort him in his distress. She must have forgotten the time he dressed up in a clown mask and kidnapped people and flung them in the Kiriakis garden shed.
