

Not your normal Days of Our Lives Recap

Little Victoria, daughter of Xander and Dr. Sarah, is finally out of the baby buggy and walking around.

They pushed that child around in the buggy so long that she could hang a leg over the side and stop it on a whim, like brakes.

Not only is she buggy free, she is a concert pianist at, what, age 3? She and Daddy Xander were in Horton Square when they happened to spot a piano out in the open where birds could poop on it.

Little Victoria runs to it and begins playing a concert opus, a word I had to Google. When Sarah arrives, little Victoria begins singing “All I Want,” and the very next day she could very well be performing surgery at Salem Hospital before she goes to Daycare.

Dr. Marlena, town psychiatrist, squints her eyes a lot at her adult grandson Johnny DiMera, whom she suspects is involved with his dad EJ in some DiMera pharmaceutical misdeeds.

She lures him into her psychiatrist office to squint her eyes at him and suck her lips together in judgement from behind her desk.

He decides not to blab secrets to her while she’s all pinchy face like that and he is unsure if the session will qualify for the Granny discount, since she’s sort of miffed.

She encourages him to be truthful with his wife Chanel about his possible involvement in any EJ DiMera seedy projects.

He’s hesitant to do that because his hot tempered wife has a short fuse and turns into a raging, screaming lunatic at the slightest offense.

Paulina Price and Abe Carver run into each other in Horton Square. Paulina is distant and aloof after being hurt by Abe when he ditched her to be with his first wife, who had been frozen like a popsicle and thawed out. She has since died again and Abe is alone.

More than 300,000 dead voters now off voter rolls

Over 750,000 Ineligible Voters Removed Since 2020

Secretary of State Michael Adams announced that 318,918 deceased voters have been removed from Kentucky’s voter rolls since he took office, bringing the total number of removals since January 2020 to 753,181.

“We’ve vigorously purged voters who have moved away, passed away, or been put away,” said Adams. “Kentucky is a national success story for clean elections.”

In August, 3,664 voters were removed: 3,233 deceased voters, 258 who moved out of state, 74 duplicate registrations, 65 who were adjudged mentally incompetent, 18 who voluntarily de-registered, 9 identified as non-citizens, and 7 felony convicts.

Despite ongoing list maintenance, Kentucky’s voter registration continues to surge with 8,266 new voters registering in August. Net registration rose by 4,602. Democratic registration accounts for 41 percent of the electorate, with 1,371,014 voters. Democratic registration rose by 260 voters, a .0019 percent increase. Republican registration constitutes 48 percent of the electorate, with 1,624,505 voters. Republican registration grew by 1,849 voters, a .11 percent increase. There are 386,382 voters registered under other political affiliations (mostly Independent), making up 11 percent of the electorate. “Other” registration jumped by 2,493 voters, a .65 percent increase.
