The Meade County Messenger will not be responsible for typographical or other errors beyond cancellation of the charge for an ad. Nor will they be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion. An advertiser must give notice of error in time for correction of next insertion. The Meade County Messenger will not be responsible for claims resulting from typographical error beyond the cost of the space involved and affected by the error. The Meade County Messenger shall accept no liability for its failure for any reason to insert an advertisement. When proofs are submitted, the advertiser assumes all responsibility for any errors in the ad that may have been overlooked. Corrections will be made when specified on proofs. The Messenger reserves the right to reprint or publish any submitted photos unless notified at time of submission. Free listings are for personal use only, excludes commercial and business dealers.

ADVERTISING DEADLINES:

Fri. 5 p.m. If proof is required • Mon. noon Classified and display ads without additional charge. If ads are requested, designed and then cancelled, one-half of the cost will be charged.

A NOTICE FOR READERS:

Kentucky Law requires private home childcare facilities to include their address in their ad. It is the parents' or guardians' responsibility to carefully check the credentials of potential childcare providers. The Meade County Messenger does not require childcare providers to present a license when placing advertisement.

NOTICE

Meade County has been awarded federal funds made available through the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Federal Emergency Management Agency. Under the Emergency Food and Shelter National Board Program. Meade County has been chosen to receive 8,399.00 for Phase 39 and 25,959 for ARPAR to supplement emergency food and shelter programs in the area.

The selection was made by a National Board that is chaired by the U. S. Department of Homeland Security's Federal Emergency Management Agency and consists of representatives from American Red Cross; Catholic Charities, USA; National Council of the Churches of Christ in the USA; The Jewish Federations of North America, The Salvation Army; and, United Way Worldwide. The Local Board was charged to distribute funds appropriated by Congress to help expand the capacity of food and shelter programs in high-need areas around the country.

A Local Board made up of (County Judge Executive's office, the Ministerial Association, the American Red Cross, the low income groups, other interested parties) will determine how the funds awarded to (Meade County) are to be distributed among the emergency food and shelter programs run by local service agencies in the area. The Local Board is responsible for recommending agencies to receive these funds and any additional funds made available under this phase of the program.

Under the terms of the grant from the National Board, local agencies chosen to receive funds must: 1) be private voluntary non-profits or units of government, 2) be eligible to receive Federal funds, 3) have an accounting system, 4) practice nondiscrimination, 5) have demonstrated the capability to deliver emergency food and/or shelter programs, and 6) if they are a private voluntary organization, have a voluntary board. Qualifying agencies are urged to apply.

Meade County has distributed Emergency Food and Shelter funds previously with Central Kentucky Community Action Council, Inc. Public or private voluntary agencies interested in applying for Emergency Food and Shelter Program funds must contact (Meade County Community Action at (270-422-2543) for an application. The deadline for applications to be received is April 13, 2022 2:00pm.

The Local Board meeting has been scheduled for April 14 at 10:00am at the Meade County Community Action.

Further information on this program may be obtained by contacting Ellen Leake. The phone number is 270-692-2136 ext 401

This project is funded, in part, under a contract with CHR with funds from CSBG Act of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
