The Rockets jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the first inning after Jack Wills and Jaxson Carter scored on wild pitches. Foster Whisman added to the lead later in the opening frame by scoring on a passed ball with Carlos Garcia at the plate. Both defenses stood firm to limit scoring opportunities in the next 1.5 innings before Shelby County brought in four runs in the bottom of the third. Carter put the Rockets in front 4-0 after scoring on a wild pitch before a dropped third strike and a walk put two runners on base for Shelby County. Tyler Eades brought in both runners on the following play with an RBI double to center field to extend the lead to 6-0.
