

2024 SENIOR CELEBRITIES

Charles Thomas Branstetter
4-H Award
Charles Thomas is the son of Amy Branstetter of Edmonton.

CT has been a part of the MCHS pep club, FCA, BETA, student ambassadors, and sources of strength. He has been an active member of 4-H for ten years. He was also a member of the football team for three years, a member of the varsity basketball team for three years, and a member of the bass fishing team for four. He has taken various dual credit classes to prepare himself for college and has also co-opted alongside construction professionals to further his knowledge in construction management.

CT has accomplished a great deal throughout his journey with 4-H. He is a KY 4-H Conrad Feltner Leadership award winner, obtained the Walter Sexton Leadership award in the Mammoth Cave area, and he received the Kentucky 4-H Hold Honor achievement. Aside from 4-H, he also acquired many sports honors as well. CT was a varsity football captain. He was named All District team in basketball, as well as All District in football. He was First Team Offense of the PAC Conference.

Future Plans: Charles Thomas plans to attend college at SKYCTC and WKU to obtain his bachelor's degree in construction management.

Mason Douglas Estes
Male Athlete Award
Mason is the son of Heather and Kenny Estes of Edmonton.

Mason first started as receiver and corner for the Varsity Football team. He ended his football career, the last three years, as quarterback and safety. He also jumped for Track. He participates in Sources of Strength, Pep Club, and is the leader of the Pep Section.

Mason is a three-time First Team All-District Winner, two-time First Team All SKY Safety, three-time First Team All-PAC, and 2023 PAC Athlete of the Year. Two-time Harold Chamber's Captain

Award. His senior year, he won Offensive and Defensive MVP. In his first full year as quarterback, he led his team to a 12-0 record regular and post-season district championship. His sophomore year, he also won a post-season district championship. He currently holds the school record for triple jump and placed 13th overall in state the first year he ever did track. He had offers for football and track including Georgetown College and Murray State University.

Future Plans: Mason has committed to play football on an athletic scholarship at Georgetown College. He plans to study business and sports communications. His long-term goal is to start his own real estate business.

Haydin Lee Quintal
STLP Award
Haydin is the son of Jason and Debra Quintal of Edmonton

Haydin is a member of the Art Club, STLP, and Chess Club. He was a member of Sources of Strength for two years as well. He was a member of the tennis, bowling, and track and field teams.

During his sophomore year, Haydin received the English II award for the first semester. Haydin also received an award for Life Skills. During his junior year, he was awarded for being on the A Team for the bowling team. Lastly, during his senior year Haydin was awarded Student of the Month.

Future Plans: Haydin will attend SKYCTC in the fall to become an electrician. After doing his two years of schooling, he plans to work another two years to achieve his Journeyman's license.

Colton Huffman
FFA Award
Colton is the son of Chris and Amber Huffman of Center.

Colton has been a member of FFA, 4-H, Beta, Future Problem Solving Team, Academic Team, Basketball, Tennis, Pep Club, Helping Hornets, National Honors Society, and FCA.
