it, and they encourage anyone who does to contact them at the EOC at (502) 839-7378.

Shelter has been offered to Anderson County residents at the Woodford County Red Cross shelter at 185 Beasley Drive. Womack added they have a representative from the National Guard coming for assistance. They have also been working tightly with the county fire department and all of their department has been Kentucky State Police.

“We are a very strong community, everyone here has been very giving and very offering. We will try to utilize those people as the needs unfold,” Womack stated.

Womack stated the course of action as of now includes dispersing the water and making contact with people that left the Tyrone and the Gilbert’s Creek area to make sure their needs have been met. She added anyone in the county that has been impacted but not reached out to the EOC to do so immediately.

Anderson County Schools were also affected by the flooding and were closed Monday, April 7, 2025. In consultation with Anderson County Emergency Management as well as county and city government officials, the decision was made on Sunday, April 6 been made to cancel classes due to potentially dangerous conditions and as a community water conservation measure.

McDonald asked the court for two motions, one to approve the rural secondary recommended projects and one to decide on the use of the flex funds for the county.

Gritton stated he met with District 7 in Lexington and he agrees these are good projects.

The court approved the recommended rural secondary project for fiscal year 2026. The court motioned to use the flex funds on county roads of their choosing rather than the cabinet’s recommendations.

- Anderson County EMS Major Amy Womack reported they have a state inspection coming up on April 14, which they have been preparing for vigorously.

Womack added they have been busy with the recent harsh weather and preparing for storms in the area, being ready to help people if needed and continuing to keep shelters open for whoever needs them.

- Anderson County parks and recreation director Mark Bryant reported that all softball and T-ball leagues will begin on April 10. All games this season will be played on Monday and Thursdays at 6 p.m., the public is welcome to attend.

Bryant added every field will be utilized this year.

He added there are several tournaments this year, beginning April 12 with a girls NSA softball tournament with more tournaments every other week-end for either softball or baseball.

The next Anderson County Fiscal Court meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 15, at 7 p.m. at the Judge Executive’s office. The public is welcome to attend.
