

Anderson County Bearcats looking to get offense in gear

BY THOMAS J. BARR
THE ANDERSON NEWS

LAWRENCEBURG – Sometimes, it's all between the ears.

For the Anderson County Bearcats, being no-hit on consecutive days can cause mental anguish.

The key for head coach L.W. Barnes' team is to shake off the offensive drought of the past week and to focus on getting better.

The Bearcats suffered through a week in which the team scored only one run in four games. Included in those setbacks were consecutive games against district foe Woodford County in which the team had no hits. "The pitching within our district is and will continue to be tough," said Barnes. "But right now everyone is struggling between the ears."

The Bearcats played Woodford County on Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Woodford's starting pitchers did a great job, no doubt, but neither should have been 'no hit' worthy," said the veteran coach.

In the opener, Brent Johnson continued his excellent senior season. He allowed just one earned run in five innings of work. Approaching 100 pitches, Johnson had to be pulled after striking out 10 Yellow Jackets.

Between Johnson, Chase Smith and Charlie Cole, Woodford County only had four hits in the 4-0 victory. However, seven walks didn't help the Bearcat cause. For the game, Bearcats struck out 12 times.

In the second game on Wednesday, things could get no better as Woodford County won 10-0 in five innings.

In three innings at the plate, the home team had 11 hits and each run was earned.

On Friday, Barnes said the team swung the bats a little better but fell 5-1 to a very good North Oldham team.

Junior Blake Johnson allowed no earned runs in five innings. However, untimely errors led to all five runs being unearned.

Austin Case had two singles and the lone RBI in three trips to the plate. Charlie Cole had the other single and the Bearcats only had three hits on the day.

While North Oldham committed a pair of errors, Barnes said the defensive play of the Mustang infield was amazing.

The final game of the past week was 12-0 loss to Boyle County in five innings.

Offensively, the Bearcats struggled with only three hits on the day. But the pitching and defense didn't do anything to help the cause.

The three Anderson hurlers gave up seven walks and hit a batter. The defense also had two errors.

At the plate, Austin, JD Cole and Brent Johnson each had singles.

For the Bearcats, it will be a matter of staying together and staying positive, said Barnes.

With four district games left, Barnes said the team needs to continue to fight.

This week, Anderson County went on the road Tuesday to play district foe Spencer County. The two teams would then play on Wednesday in Lawrenceburg.

Scott County will come to town on Friday night with the first pitch at 6 p.m. On Saturday, the Bearcats will go to Louisville to play Male at 10 a.m. and will return to the River City to play Southern on Tuesday.
