

SANCTIFIED

accepted Christ's salvation, we were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise. We can find ourselves in the heated pressures of troubles and tribulations throughout our lives; however, we have the fruit of the Spirit to keep us moving forward in the sanctifying process and also have a way of escape from our temptations (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Once we are preserved, we are then called by the Lord God to perform those special and specific purposes for Him. Each of us is given gifts and talents that equip us for the tasks, and we will obtain the strength and knowledge from the Holy Spirit and God's Word that qualifies us. Isaiah writes in 40:29 and 31, "He gives power to the faint; and to them that have no might, He increases strength ...

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint."

Jude wrote over 12 verses with his warnings about being drawn away from the truth and even denying the only Lord Jesus. He told how men would come to deceive many, and there would be a subversive scoffing of the church, its authority, idolatry, lusts, and sexual immorality that would be ramped. We see that the deception from our enemy continues to this date in time.

The closing of the chapter finds Jude again encouraging the Christians to pray, keep in God's Word, build others up, and to understand the promise in verse 24, "Now unto Him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy."

As saved-by-grace, blood bought, born again Christians, we are continually being sanctified. We are eternally preserved, and He calls us for His purposes. Are you answering His call? Denise Barrett serves as a devotional writer, Bible teacher, speaker, and volunteer for Gathering Grace CWM (Center for Women's Ministries).

REPENTANCE AS AN ONGOING NEED

While repentance is essential for salvation, it is also a continual practice in the life of a believer. Even after we are saved, we will still wrestle with sin and fall short of God's standard. Repentance is the means by which we maintain our relationship with God and grow in holiness.

The apostle John addresses this ongoing need in 1 John 2:1: "My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous."

This verse reminds us that repentance is not about achieving perfection but about continually turning to Christ, our advocate, the Lord," who, in His own good time, will bring us out from "under the circumstances."

Sorrow may come, and we are "under the circumstances." But we have the faith that one day we will see our loved one again in a land where our sorrows will be forever over.

Friends may forsake us over some petty grievance. When they turn their backs on us, it hurts.

One day, we will reach the end of the way. We will look back over our sins and thank God they have been covered by the blood of who intercedes on our behalf.

GOD'S DESIRE FOR REPENTANCE

God's call to repentance is not motivated by anger but by love. He desires that all people turn to Him and experience His grace. As 2 Peter 3:9 declares: "The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead, he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to
