Maddox Powell, and junior Emma Walker and sophomore Grace Franich — all earned spots in the state tournament after reaching the region semifinals.

The girls' team earned a region runner-up finish after falling to Daviess County in the final, and the boys' team lost in the tournament semifinals to Owensboro Catholic.

"The Grayson County High School program will always work toward being a regional contender," said Coach Sherry Vincent. "The players really brought a more focused and deliberate approach, and were more mature in execution of the game plan. They made the needed adjustments out on the court."

She said the teams were a "good representation of our program, school, and community."

The state tournament begins Tuesday.
