The Ten Commandments

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Honor thy father and thy mother.

Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Thou shalt not covet.

God Is Love

FAITH CAN MOVE MOUNTAINS

*"The platinum rule mindset is, I'm going to treat others the way they want to be treated. My attention to who this person is and how they show up, and what their preferences are—and my tolerance, my patience, my kindness—it all shows up differently with that mindset of the platinum rule versus the golden rule."
—Scott Keller*
The Platinum Rule
You may have heard that there is a new and improved version of the Golden Rule, called the Platinum Rule. The Golden Rule, as almost everyone knows, says that we should do unto others as we would have done unto ourselves. The Platinum Rule says that we should do unto others as they would have done unto themselves. In other words, the Golden rule is somewhat self-centered in suggesting that others would like the same things as we do, whereas the Platinum Rule is other-centered and suggests finding out what the other person wants. We may love fig newtons and think that everyone must love fig newtons and therefore I will make a gift of fig newtons to my friend. But perhaps your friend doesn't like fig newtons. How much better it would be to ask your friend what his favorite cookies are and to make a gift of them. We all have our own tastes, concerning which it makes no sense to argue, so start following the Platinum Rule and doing unto others what they would like.
