

Delores June “Momma” Lee, 88

Delores June “Momma” Lee was born November 22, 1936, in Jefferson County, to the late Hugh Wright and Anna Belle Miller Lynn. She departed this life on Saturday, April 5, 2025, at her residence, having attained the age of 88 years, four months and 14 days.

She was a saved, born-again Christian, and was a member of the Russell Creek Missionary Baptist Church. She was a high school graduate and was a retired CNA from Lifeline Home Health. She was a member of the Homemakers Group and the Ladies Prayer Group. Besides her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband, Frank “Red” Lee on July 6, 1999, being wed on December 22, 1956; three daughters: Carolyn Sue Norris, Gloria Jean Lee, and Patty Vanarsdall; one son: Mitchell Lee; one brother: Benjamin Wright Jr.; and one sister: Genevive Hutchinson.

She is survived by

Delores “Momma” Lee

two daughters: Tammy Lee, Missy Curry and her husband Brent of Green County, KY; two sons: Michael Lee and his wife Jennifer of Green County, KY; Patrick Lee and Leslie Branham of Glasgow, KY; two sons-in-law: Ray Norris of Jefferson County, David Vanarsdall of Green County; one daughter-in-law: Bee Lee of Green County, KY; one brother: Lynden Wright of Jefferson County, KY; eleven grandchildren: Chasity Davis, Grant Lee, Scott Norris, Cole Davis, Amber Pruitt, Jason Vanarsdall, Gabby Vanarsdall, Gracey Branham, Kayden Lee, Shawn Lee, and Triz Lee; a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, plus nieces, nephews, and many friends.

Funeral service for Delores June “Momma” Lee will be conducted 1 p.m. CT, Wednesday, April 9, 2025, at the Foster-Toler-Curry Funeral Home with burial to follow in the Oak Grove Separate Baptist Church Cemetery with Bro. Adam Pruitt and Bro. Micky Pruitt officiating.

Visitation was Tuesday evening and will be after 7 a.m. Wednesday, April 9, 2025, at Foster-Toler-Curry Funeral Home in Greensburg.

Pallbearers: Mike Lee, Patrick Lee, David Vanarsdall, Mike Jones, Larry Pierce, Brent Curry.

The family has requested expressions of sympathy be donations to the Oak Grove Separate Baptist Church Cemetery Fund and those can be made at the funeral home.

Nick Charles Milby, 60

Nick Charles Milby was born July 10, 1964 in Hardin County, KY to the late Charles Edward and Annie Marie Creason Milby. He departed this life Thursday, April 3, 2025, at his home in the Gabe Community of Green County, having attained the age of 60 years, eight months and 24 days.

He had made a profession of faith in Christ and attended Oak Forest Cumberland Presbyterian Church, at an early age. He retired from TG Kentucky.

He is survived by his wife Christina Moran Milby, son: Jonathon Milby and one stepdaughter: Natasha Keltner and one step granddaughter: Arlie Keltner of Green County, two brothers: Troy Milby and his wife Missy of Buffalo and Jason Milby of Hodgenville.

Following his wishes, cremation was chosen. There will be no funeral service or visitation. For more information call Foster-Toler-Curry Funeral Home in Greensburg.

Spring Revival services at Community Baptist

Community Baptist Church will have Spring Revival April 8-12 at 6 p.m. CT each night.

Bro. Caleb Shirley will be the guest April 8-9 and Bro. Casey Durrett, April 10-11. The church is located at 5918 Edmonton Road. Bro. Charles Jewell, pastor, invites everyone to attend.

Lenten services at Greensburg United Methodist Church

The Greensburg United Methodist Church invites the Greensburg community to the following Lenten services: April 13– Palm

Sunday at 10 a.m. CT April 17– Maundy Thursday at 6 p.m. CT April 18– Good Friday, sanctuary open for come and go quiet prayer and reflection, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. CT April 20– Easter at 10 a.m. CT Services will be held in the church sanctuary at 111 W. Court Street.

Easter service, meal, egg hunt at Fry Baptist Church

Fry Baptist Church invites everyone to attend their Easter meal, Sunday, April 13. Sunday School will begin at 9 a.m. CT and worship starts at 10 a.m. A potluck meal will be held following worship. There will also be an Easter egg hunt for the youth after the meal. The pastor, Bro. Jared Ervin, and the congregation welcome everyone to attend this special service.

Let the Record-Herald publish your church service!

Email announcements to news2@record-herald.com

The Ten Commandments

- Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
 - Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.
 - Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
 - Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
 - Honor thy father and thy mother.
 - Thou shalt not kill.
 - Thou shalt not commit adultery.
 - Thou shalt not steal.
 - Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.
 - Thou shalt not covet.
- (Exodus 20:3-17)

Greensburg-Green County

A proud past — A promising future

Way Back When

By CAROL DIAL
SPECIAL TO THE R-H

April 15, 2015
Property ordinance passes - City Council passed an ordinance to create a new classification of abandoned and blighted property to allow the levying of taxes at the highest permissible rates.

Hazel speaks at dinner - Marti Hazel, Green County native and media vice-president for WDRB TV, was the featured speaker at the Chamber of Commerce awards dinner.

Weather report - The past week had an average of 63 degrees, 9 degrees above normal, and 1.61 inch of rainfall.

Care packages for soldiers - Eleven-year-old Nathan Davis has been collecting items to include in care packages to send to our soldiers in foreign lands.

April 13, 2005
Free trees - Southeastern Kentucky Tourism Development sponsored a free tree event in the county. There were 1,500 red-bud trees given away.

Accident - Rain-slick Mickey Vaughn Curve was the site of a non-injury accident. The driver of the car, Linda Rainwater escaped injury.

Volunteers needed - Volunteers were needed to participate in a PRIDE week clean-up of American Legion Park.

March of Dimes

ambassadors - Sherri and Brad Corbin and their daughter Hailee were appointed Hardin County's ambassadors for the March of Dimes walk.

April 12, 1995
High speed chase - A high speed chase from Taylor County into Green County ended with the arrest of a Munfordville woman.

Locals at Mule Days - Terry Reynolds, Biff Russell and Dean Burress participated in Mule Days at Columbia, Tennessee.

South wins medals - Scott South recently won several medals during mountain bike competition.

Two injured - Steven Underwood and Donald Underwood were hospitalized for treatment following a single vehicle accident on Hwy. 323.

April 11, 1985
Housing for elderly - Attendees of a public hearing were in favor of a proposed 24 unit housing complex for the elderly on South First Street.

Simmons wins contest - Evelyn Simmons was the winner of a one minute shopping spree at Greensburg Gateway. Simmons scored $56.65 of groceries of her choice.

Donansburg, Dolye Webb - Spring is really a resurrection as so many things are putting on a new life.

Prom royalty - Karla Deaton and Greg Blaydes were chosen king and queen of the 1985 GCHS Junior-Senior Prom.

April 17, 1975 Robbery at Burley 2 - Thieves stole a truck at Burley #2 tobacco warehouse to transport a Massey Ferguson and disc and other stolen items. The truck was recovered near Allendale.

N o r t h Summersville, Lydia Marcum - The farmers have been very busy the last few days as the rain has let up.

Properties sold - Abe Berry bought a building on the Square from Woodson Turner to be used for the Greyhound Bus Service and cab service.

Sports queen crowned - Junior Shelia Milby was crowned the 1975 GCHS Sports Queen.

April 16, 1965
Tornado kills native - Nancy Tucker Kinsel, a Green County native, lost her life when a tornado struck her mobile home in Goshen, Indiana.

Pierce , Mrs. L. W. Davis - A surprise birthday party was given for Ural Simpson.

Featured at the Franklin - Cary Grant stars in “Father Goose”.

Obituaries - Raymond Lewis Loyall, 2 1/2 months, April 15; Martin Judd, 85, April 12; Flo Harrell, 80, April 5; Emma McMahahan Moss, 80, April 11; L.L. Gumm, 81, April 14; Louis U. Curry, 81, April 4; Floyd E. Pierce, 65, April 7.

When is a Good Time for Roth Conversion?

Becky Todd
Financial Advisor
2413 Ring Rd Suite 105
Elizabethtown, KY 42701
270-737-0249

becky.todd@edwardjones.com
www.edwardjones.com/becky-todd

Kyle Todd
Financial Advisor
2413 Ring Rd Suite 105
Elizabethtown, KY 42701
270-737-0249

kyle.todd@edwardjones.com
www.edwardjones.com/kyle-todd

Kristen Manco
Financial Advisor
2413 Ring Rd Suite 105
Elizabethtown, KY 42701
270-737-0249

kristen.manco@edwardjones.com
www.edwardjones.com/kristen-manco

In life, you often get second chances — and the same is true with investing. To illustrate: You might not have been able to contribute to a Roth IRA during your working years due to your income level, but you may get that opportunity as you near retirement, or even when you are retired — through a Roth conversion.

Why is a Roth IRA desirable for some people? Here are the key benefits:

- Tax-free withdrawals — You put in after-tax dollars to a Roth IRA, so you can withdraw your contributions at any time, free of taxes and penalties. And if you've had your account for at least five years and you're at least 59½, you can also withdraw your earnings free of taxes.

- No RMDs — With a traditional IRA, you'll have to start taking withdrawals — called required minimum distributions, or RMDs — when you turn 73, or 75 if you were born in 1960 or later. But there's no RMD requirement with a Roth IRA — you can essentially leave the money intact as long as you like.

- Tax-free legacy for your heirs — When your heirs inherit your Roth IRA, they can withdraw the contributions without paying taxes or penalties, and if the account has been open at least five years, they can also withdraw earnings tax free.

But even if you were aware of these advantages, you might not have been able to invest in a Roth IRA for much of your life. For one thing, you might have earned too much money — a Roth IRA, unlike a traditional IRA, has income limits. Also, a Roth IRA has only been around since 1998, so, in the previous years, you were limited to a traditional IRA.

As you approach retirement, though, you might start thinking of just how much you'd like to benefit from a Roth IRA. And you can do so by converting your traditional IRA to a Roth. While this sounds simple, there's a major caveat: taxes. You'll be taxed on the amount in pre-tax dollars you contributed to a traditional IRA and then converted to a Roth IRA. (If you have both pre- and after-tax dollars in your traditional IRA, the taxable amount is based on the percentage of pre-tax dollars.)

If you have large amounts in a traditional IRA, the tax bill on conversion can be significant. The key to potentially lowering this tax bill is timing. Generally speaking, the lower your income in a given year, the more favorable it is for you to convert to a Roth IRA. So, for example, if you have already retired, but have not started collecting RMDs, your income may be down.

Timing also comes into play with the financial markets. When the market is going through a decline, and the value of your traditional IRA drops, you could convert the same number of shares of the underlying investments and receive a lower tax bill or convert more shares of these investments for what would have been the same tax bill.

Finally, you could lower your tax bill in any given year by stretching out your Roth IRA conversions over several years, rather than doing it all at once.

You'll want to consult with your tax advisor before embarking on this conversion — but if it's appropriate for your situation, you could find that owning a Roth IRA can benefit you and your family for years to come.

Edward Jones

This article was written by Edward Jones for use by your local Edward Jones Financial Advisor.
Edward Jones, Member SIPC