The Farmers Market on Green River is also partnering with Farm Bureau on July 3 for a special event. “Farm Bureau will be there to give away free hot dog meals to all the shoppers,” Bishop said. “They will also be giving away money to be used at the market and they will have a table of freebies that people can pick up.” Kentucky Double Dollars Program is also available at the Market to help senior citizens of the county. Any senior in the county who gets their nutrition program card at the Green County Senior Center is eligible to participate in the program that allows them to get free food each week.
