PCMH and Perry County Council on Aging Partner to Host Mental Health Workshop Series

Tell City, IN — Perry County Memorial Hospital (PCMH) and the Perry County Council on Aging are partnering to host a free, two-part educational workshop focused on mental health and wellness. This series is being presented by Renewed Horizons, PCMH's geriatric behavioral health program, and is open to all members of the community.

The workshops will be held at the William Tell Center and will offer valuable information and tools to better understand mental health—particularly in aging populations. Attendees will learn how to recognize common signs and symptoms of mental health challenges, coping strategies, and available local resources. Cost is free to all attendees but space is limited!

Part 1 – Therapeutic Art Workshop Details:

Location: William Tell Center
Dates: August 11th, 2025
Time: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

Part 2 – Mindfulness Workshop Details:

Location: William Tell Center
Dates: August 18th, 2025
Time: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

“We’re excited to work with the Council on Aging to bring mental health awareness directly into the community,” said Beth Mehringer Director of Renewed Horizons at PCMH. “Mental health is just as important as physical health, and we hope this series encourages open conversations and support for those who need it.”

Tyler O’Bryan

radar but once the opportunity presented itself, I was happy to. I think it’s a great opportunity for me, and a way to learn about how to better serve the community. I think it will be a really nice opportunity for me to try and help out. Rob coached me during high school, and I grew up with Wayne’s grandson; We graduated together and played baseball together our entire lives... Rob and I have been very close ever since he coached me. He told me that he felt like I’d be a good fit, based on my finance experience, and because we’re so close he knows how I am.”

Tyler graduated from Brescia University in 2020 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance and Economics. He is currently employed as an accountant at Commonwealth Rolled Products.

“I grew up here. I just bought a house in Hawesville. I plan on staying here for a long time,” he said. “I’ll plan on trying to be re-elected, and being here for the long haul. It would be a good way to serve my community.”

He and his wife, Kendra, are both Hancock County natives. He graduated from Hancock County High School in 2016, where the couple met, and is the grandson of Pat & Theresa O’Bryan, and the son of Mark & Amy O’Bryan. He is also blessed with one brother, Dylan O’Bryan.

Kendra is an HCHS alumna, and is the daughter of Michael Brown and Monica Turner (Ratajczak). She is a registered nurse (RN) at Owensboro Health Regional Hospital. They married in March of this year.

Tyler’s financial knowledge and experience will be very helpful to the city council, especially as the administration continues to address challenges related to completing audits left unresolved by the previous administration.

“I have been an accountant at Commonwealth for close to three years now,” he said. “It’s something I deal with every day, so I have a lot of familiarity with it...I’m excited for the opportunity to serve on the council. I’ve known Rob for a long time. I’m excited to help him out in whatever ways he needs, and just be able to be an asset in whatever ways I can be; I’m just here to help.”
