Abreu has slam, inside-the-park HR as Red Sox beat Reds

Field Level Media

Wilyer Abreu made home run history and the Boston Red Sox scored seven runs in the first inning en route to a 13-6 victory over the visiting Cincinnati Reds on Monday night. Abreu hit an inside-the-park home run in the fifth inning and a grand slam in the eighth, becoming the first player to have each of those homers separately in a game since Roger Maris in 1958. Trevor Story and Jarren Duran also homered for Boston in the victory. Cincinnati starting pitcher Chase Burns, the No. 2 overall pick in last year's draft, made his second major league start but was pulled from the mound with one out in the first inning. Burns (0-1) allowed seven runs (five earned) on five hits and two walks. Story's three-run homer highlighted Boston's seven-run first inning, which included an RBI single from Abraham Toro, an RBI double from Carlos Narvaez, an RBI single from David Hamilton and a run-scoring single from Roman Anthony. Each of the nine batters in Boston's starting lineup had at least one hit on the night, totaling 14. Garrett Crochet (8-4) gave up five runs (four earned) on seven hits in six innings but earned the win. He struck out nine and walked one.

Guerrero sparks Jays' win vs. Yankees

Field Level Media

Vladimir Guerrero Jr. drove in three runs Monday as Toronto edged the visiting New York Yankees 5-4 in the opener of a four-game series. Guerrero's two-run single in a four-run sixth inning gave the Blue Jays the lead for good. Brendon Little (4-1) got the win in relief and Jeff Hoffman pitched around a single in the ninth to earn his 19th save.

Red Sox 13, Reds 6:

Wilyer Abreu made home run history and host Boston scored seven runs in the first inning en route to a victory over Cincinnati. Abreu hit an inside-the-park home run in the fifth inning and a grand slam in the eighth, becoming the first player to have each of those homers separately in a game since Roger Maris in 1958. Chase Burns lasted just one out in his second major league start for the Reds, yielding seven runs (five earned) on five hits and two walks. Phillies 4, Padres 0:

Zack Wheeler struck out 10 over eight effective innings as host Philadelphia posted a shutout win against San Diego. Wheeler (8-3) allowed six hits without a walk before Tanner Banks pitched the ninth. Nick Castellanos homered and J.T. Realmuto had two hits for the Phillies, who have won three of their past four games. Orioles 10, Rangers 6 (11 innings): Luis Vazquez and Ramon Laureano had RBI hits in the 11th inning before Gunnar Henderson added a two-run double, lifting Baltimore to a wild win at Texas. Henderson hit a two-run homer in the 10th inning before teammate Colton Cowser added a solo shot, but the Rangers equalized on Adolis Garcia's three-run blast against Keegan Akin (3-0). Pirates 7, Cardinals 0: Andrew Heaney and Chase Shugart combined on a four-hitter and the Pittsburgh offense remained hot during a rout of visiting St. Louis. Heaney (4-7) held St. Louis hitless until the sixth inning. The Cardinals lost for only the fourth time in their past 14 games and had a three-game winning streak snapped. St. Louis' three most recent defeats were all shutouts. Mariners 6, Royals 2: Randy Arozarena hit two homers and drove in four and Cal Raleigh went deep for the major-league-leading 33rd time this season as Seattle defeated visiting Kansas City. Mariners starter George Kirby (2-4) allowed one run on three hits over six innings as the Mariners earned their second victory in a row and their sixth in the past nine games. The Royals lost for the eighth time in nine games. Diamondbacks 4, Giants 2: Alek Thomas had three hits and scored twice, including the go-ahead run on a Geraldo Perdomo single in the seventh inning, and Arizona defeated San Francisco in the opener of a four-game series in Phoenix. After a two-run double by Tyler Fitzgerald drew the Giants even at 2-2 in the top of the seventh, the Diamondbacks pushed across the eventual difference-maker in the bottom of the inning against San Francisco ace Logan Webb. Athletics 6, Rays 4: Lawrence Butler lined a two-run, tie-breaking triple in the ninth inning as the Athletics won at Tampa Bay. A's left fielder Colby Thomas, in his major league debut, ended the eighth by throwing out Brandon Lowe at the plate on a potential go-ahead single.
