

AROMA

and how they can be poison to ourselves and others. I was so convicted.”

Paul offers this example of a sweet-smelling sacrifice. In Philippians 4:18 we read, “Indeed I have all and abound. I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, a sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.”

While that sin problem persists, we have a permanent solution in Jesus Christ, our Lord. He was the blood sacrifice that takes away all sin, forever. And even though we do not need to work our way to our Heavenly home, people should be able to tell that we know the way there by our actions and the fruit we produce. This means laying down our lives and taking up the cross of Jesus!

Conviction produces action, otherwise, it is simply guilt, and we know born-again believers are free from the past. If you are seeking a closer walk with God, step into the Word and walk closer to Him.

In John 1:1 we read, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.” And then in verse 14, “And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.”

Many people believe the fawn was somehow separated from the mother, and without the mother to guide it to food and water, it died. All of us have been separated from the Father by sin, but you can reach out to Him, and

He will lead you to life.
