

HAMPTON

I'm not going to lie, I teared up when I found out he was Mr. Football. He's the best player in the state."

OHS head coach DaMarcus Ganaway Sr., was also thrilled to see the work pay off for Evan Hampton.

"Emotional," Ganaway said. "Just because you saw his emotion, the team's emotion, we all saw how hard he worked. We also know how special he is. Everybody rallied around him, too. It meant a lot to the entire team that he is Mr. Football."

These were the numbers Hampton finished with in his senior season. Hampton was the Most Valuable Player in the Class 5-A championship game, and that bodes well for his chances at being named Kentucky Mr. Football. He's already the Gatorade Kentucky Football Player of the Year.

Hampton ran for 108 yards and three touchdowns in the state championship game.

Hampton ran for 2,035 yards on 173 attempts, which was 11.7 yards per carry this season. He added 288 receiving yards and had 34 total touchdowns.

Those numbers were tremendous by themselves, but they were made even more phenomenal because he only had 41 rushing yards against St. Xavier and 15 rushing yards against Christian Academy-Louisville. OHS started 0-2 after losing to St. X 38-7 in Louisville and CAL 35-0 at Rash Stadium.

In five playoff games,

Hampton went for 94, 76, 326, 266 and 108 yards, which totaled 870 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Hampton ended his OHS career with 5,259 rushing yards and 82 touchdowns. He should hit the KHSAA all-time rushing list with that yardage. Hampton had 6,100 all-purpose yards for OHS.

for Owensboro when he was the CVB's destination management director, said the event's size and relationship-driven format make it a strong fit for places like Owensboro.

He said, "Heartland Travel Showcase is the perfect size show for Owensboro because of the interactions that lead to relationships for us with tour operators. I can say in only our second year of attending, we booked business directly on the floor."

Calitri said the weekend will begin with exhibitor orientation and the Four-Minute Meet, "a fast-paced networking session where exhibitors and tour operators make brief introductions and establish initial connections that carry into scheduled appointments throughout the weekend."

The opening night celebration will be at the Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame & Museum.

The second day focuses on scheduled appointments and open trade show time, allowing planners and destinations to continue conversations and build relationships throughout the day, Calitri said. The evening features a dine-around experience, where attendees explore Owensboro on their own, visiting local restaurants and experiencing the food, atmosphere, and hospitality that make the community distinctive, he said.

The final day ends with more appointments and trade show time, allowing planners and partners to follow up on conversations, finalize connections and wrap up the weekend.

Calitri said Heartland Travel Showcase is "known for its compact, relationship-driven format, designed to maximize meaningful interaction while minimizing time away from the office. For Owensboro, hosting the event represents a powerful opportunity to showcase the destination, strengthen industry relationships and create future visitation and economic impact."
