beginning with summer school that year. Talking things over with my parents, I decided to enroll.

“That fall; however, I would be the only black undergraduate enrolled.

“I must admit I was in unchartered waters, but I wouldn’t change anything—my studying at WKU and my achievements. I give God the glory. A favorite song of mine.”

Words from her pastor also show how she adjusts to change and never waives her trust in God as she continues her journey. “I have had the precious, priceless privilege of pastoring the Macedonia Baptist Church in Auburn for the past 10 years. An added blessing is that I have the honor of pastoring Sister

Margaret Munday,” said Terrence Duncan, Munday’s pastor.

“Truly, she is a living icon, not only in the church but also in the community and surrounding areas. Along with her blessing MBC with her musical ministry and her in-depth knowledge of the word of God, she is also a great supporter of the ministries of Macedonia and a friend to all.

“Sister Margaret Munday has truly been a blessing to my ministry and an inspiration in my life!”
