Going into the scrimmage, Coach Whittaker talked about what he wanted to see from his players: “I think in our scrimmages this week, the main focus will be to see how our situational awareness is, and to see who is ready to compete in and out of each game. I want to see who wants to rattle some cages. It’s also good for our pitchers to continue to get dialed in and work on their craft against opposition. My hope is that this season is going to be something everyone can be proud of.”

Finding themselves trailing by one after the top of the first inning, the Panthers strung together multiple hits to take a large lead, starting with sophomore Diego Escobar Vera driving senior Hunter Hallman across for the tying score. Sophomore Isaac “Gus” Gunderson would get Vera across on a base hit to take a 2-1 lead. The Dragons would be unable to stop the bleeding as they surrendered six more runs to close out the bottom of the first inning. Khristian Ortiz would get his first run batted in (RBI), pushing Octavious “Too Too” McKeage across home plate for a two-run lead. Freshmen Carsen Farmer, and Hallman would earn RBIs on doubles to close out the inning with an 8-1 lead.

Through the first two innings, Gunderson was the starting pitcher and earned multiple strikeouts, only surrendering four runs. McKeage took over at the pitcher’s mound at the top of the third inning and surrendered one run, two walks, and two strikeouts on the night. The Panthers will look to solidify their pitching rotation as the season progresses.

The Panthers will be in action on the road tonight as they travel to Hopkins County Central to take on the Storm, before returning back home after a four-game road trip. They play host to Heritage Christian Academy on April 1. With the young season getting underway, the Panthers look poised to have a successful year as the revamped program hopes to maintain the momentum built from their early-season win.
