VOICE

about what the biggest moment in his career was, he pointed out, "Winning the conference championship as an individual my senior year. I played solid golf all 54 holes of that tournament. During the final round, I hit a tee shot on a par 3 that bounced off the back of the green and ended up in the parking lot. I played it off the pavement, got it up and down for par and it was pivotal. As a fifth-year senior, I shot a final round of 71 in the conference tournament, securing a team victory and sending us to the NAIA National Tournament."

McKenzie gave a heartfelt message on his induction and what it means to him: "It's truly an honor to be inducted into the Brescia University Athletic Hall of Fame. Brescia gave me so many opportunities and I met many great people in my time there. I am honored that I was chosen to have my legacy live on with the other great people and athletes that were inducted before me. I look forward to the day that I can take my son back to campus and get to show him my picture on the wall."

As a well-known community figure with his work in announcing and play-by-play, McKenzie looks to continue the legacy he left at Brescia as he continues his work locally. An achievement that every college athlete would hope to grasp, McKenzie can say he lives out the dream and makes his community proud.
