

Patriot grave marking planned; descendants invited

BY DENISE SHOULDERS
NEWS-DEMOCRAT & LEADER

The Colonel Benjamin Logan Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution invites you to join them on Saturday, June 14, at 2 p.m. to honor a true American patriot.

The chapter is honoring David Saunders by placing a marker at the Leonard Page Cemetery located at 7110 Clarksville Road, Russellville.

Saunders was drafted into service for Goochland County, Va., in 1778 for a three-month term of service. He served with the county's militia, commanded by Captain Gideon Hatcher, as a private. Throughout the war, Saunders would be called up for a three-month term of service again and again, successfully completing each one. Saunders, also sometimes found as Sanders, was twice married and the father of at least four children. Descendants of these children remain in Logan County to this day, some residing not too far from where Saunders himself lived.

Cheryl Goley, a descendant, said she has attended several grave-marking ceremonies the SAR performs and believes what the chapters do to honor our Revolutionary War soldiers is great. This one in particular will have more meaning to Goley since Saunders, the first ancestor who settled in Logan County, is her fourth great-grandfather. "It will be such an honor to be involved in honoring his service to our country," Goley said.

Another descendant and Col. Benjamin Logan Chapter member, Randy Parrish, said honoring Saunders has been on his mind since the chapter reorganized in 2018. Marking Saunders' grave means a great deal more to Parrish since nationwide the country is currently commemorating the 250th anniversary of events from the birth of our nation.

Goley and Parrish agree that they hope other descendants will get word of the service happening and plan to attend. SAR chapters across the country perform these ceremonies.
