"I've seen some of [Cooper's] scores, and they definitely seem to be much improved, so we'll have our hands full," Veech said. "I'm going to actually see if I can go on Hudl and catch some of their tape, just to see what we're looking at but hosting it here is huge, because that's an hour or so drive depending on traffic. We've been to Notre Dame two years in a row, and it's never been at least an hour drive because of traffic. Us being able to stay here, have meal right after school, have them all here, we can even get down here and maybe do a little walk through before the game and just being in the comforts of just a normal [Friday], they'll go to school just like a normal week of games. I think that's huge, being able to stay home and do it and not have to travel."
