Store interest sold
Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Morris sold their one-half interest in the Morris and Wainscot store at Long Ridge to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hale Saturday. Possession was given the same.

Fire damage
A fire caused damage to a building on the A.E. Rose property on Tuesday afternoon. The building was formerly used as a garage but was used more as a storage room and meat house lately. Several old hams were scorched.

Juett funeral held
Among those attending the funeral of Wilton W. "Wick" Juett in Muncie on Saturday were: Wilton R. Juett and Mr. and Mrs. Worth W. Juett, all of Georgetown; Willia New and Susie Stephenson of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Prather and their son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Young and their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Towles and their daughter, Jo, of Beechwood; Mr. and Mrs. New of Hesler; and Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Juett of Owenton.

Postal worker crushes hand
Mrs. Silas Johnson, an assistant in the local post office, injured her hand badly on Wednesday of last week when she accidentally caught it in an electric wringer. She was taken to King's Daughters Hospital in Frankfort for an x-ray and treatment of the crushed hand and is now recovering nicely at home from the mishap. She is not able to return to her work at the post office.

Johnsons to move
Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson have purchased the Willis McClure house and will move in as soon as necessary improvements are made. The Howard McDonald family will move into the place vacated by the Johnsons. Mr. McDonald recently bought the Johnson place.

Births
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bourne, of near Owenton, announce the birth of a son, Paul Douglas, at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington. Mrs. Bourne is the former Doris Ann Lusby. She is doing nicely, but the baby's condition is none too good.

Birthday
Mrs. Wilbert Marksberry entertained at her home in Hesler on Thursday evening in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The table was beautifully-decorated. The centerpiece was a large angel food cake bearing 23 candles and the inscription "Happy Birthday, Nub."

Personals
Mrs. Wilfred O'Banion has been confined to her bed since Wednesday of last week with
