

BATTLE

battled with Collins junior Reece Delany through two miles. Mshindi had beaten Delaney the previous weekend at Rumble by almost five seconds. However, Delaney got the better of Mshindi at the Border Battle as he poured it on with 600 meters to go. Delaney's time of 16:55 was the second fastest boys time for the course, only behind the 16:42 that A. J. Kern of South Oldham put down in 2022.

Collins' Reece Delaney won the Border Battle in the second fastest time in meet history.

Lucas Courtney of Shelby County was the next finisher for Team Shelby finishing eighth in 18:46. Behind Courtney was Collins senior George Diakhate who placed 11th (19:00) in his first race of the season after being injured. Collins junior Ethan Kuzman was the next scorer for Team Shelby in 19th. He was followed by Isaac Trzcinski, Mason Way, and Eli Misner of Shelby County who rounded out the scoring. Again, as in the girls' race, Team Oldham came away with the win, 36 to 78, by capturing places two through seven.

Shelby County head cross country coach Les Harris said, "The Border Battle is a great meet to be part of. Teaming up with Collins and seeing the athletes working together, cheering for each other is good for our sport. This also gives every coach involved a chance to evaluate young runners who normally don't get the Varsity experience. Cross Country has not always garnered much attention, but Friday evening we highlighted our talent.

The Running Titans traveled to Tom Sawyer Park on Sept. 20 to compete in the Trinity Valkyrie Invitational.
