April 22 — Quotes on Life and Emotions:

Your emotions are the slaves to your thoughts, and you are the slave to your emotions. (What worries you, masters you).

Feelings are something you have, not something you are. Appreciate what you have before it turns into something you had.

Stop giving people the power to control your smile, your worth, and your attitude.

A barren place can still be a fruit bearing season if you stay connected to the vine. (Jesus)

Life is a lesson which must be lived to be understood.

You have to believe in yourself when no one else does.

You only live life once, but if you do it right, once is enough.

If you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change.

Hope you enjoyed these quotes. Just a little change up. Always remember , love yourself, move forward, look for the sunshine and follow the rainbow. The rainbow is a sign of hope, promise, after the storms of life. Count your rainbows not your thunderstorms.

Household Hints

√Place shavings of irish spring or other strongly scented bar soap around outside plants to keep rabbits, deer, etc. away.

√Prevent paint spatters to a door knob when painting a door by covering it with tin foil.

√Wet a cotton ball and place it in the bottom of the pot prior to adding soil and plant which will help to retain moisture and create air pockets for a more healthy plant. Also soak a cotton ball with essential oil to help keep parasitic insects away from plant.

√Banana peels chopped in fine pieces can be used as a natural fertilizer in the flower garden. Bury the chopped peels in the soil around plants and when decomposed, the plants will become greener and healthier.

√Repurpose eggshells. Crushed eggshells buried in soil around tomato and pepper plants can be used as a natural fertilizer to boost the health of the soil and the plant.
