RECIPE

SALISBURY STEAK

1 pound lean ground beef
 1/4 cup panko bread crumbs
 1 large egg beaten
 2 tsp ketchup
 1 tsp Dijon mustard
 1/2 tsp dried oregano
 1 tsp salt
 1 tbsp olive oil (for skillet)
 Gravy
 2 tbsp butter
 1 & 1/2 cups beef stock
 2 tbsp flour
 1 tbsp ketchup
 1 tsp worcestershire sauce
 1/2 tsp onion powder
 6 oz sliced mushrooms
 salt & pepper

In large bowl mix together all the ingredients for the steaks (except oil). Shape into oval patties about 3/4 inch thick. In large skillet, warm olive oil over medium heat. Add steaks and cook about 3 minutes per side until nice golden crust. Transfer to plate. With skillet drippings, add butter, melt, add flour and whisk until no lumps. Reduce heat to med-low, pour in beef stock, whisking well. Add ketchup worcestershire sauce, onion powder, combine mushrooms, simmer 5 minutes until thickens, season with salt & pepper. Add steaks back in skillet in gravy, cover, cook 10 minutes until cooked through. Serve over mashed potatoes. YUM. ENJOY!!

Beshear says Medicaid cuts could put 35 Ky. hospitals at risk of closure

Congressmen Barr, Rogers, Ky. Hospital Association disagree

By Melissa Patrick

In a letter to President Donald Trump, U.S. Senate Democrats have raised concerns about the risk his "Big Beautiful Bill" will have on rural hospitals. The letter lists 338 of them that will be at risk of closing if the proposed cuts are implemented, with 35 of them in Kentucky — the most of any state, Samantha Valentino reports for WKYT-TV.

"It'd be devastating to what is a strong rural hospital system," Gov. Andy Beshear, who has been sounding the alarm about this for months, told Valentino.

The letter was also addressed to U.S. Speaker of the House Mike Johnson and U.S. Majority Leader John Thune.

The Congressional Budget Office says the proposed changes would save more than $800 billion in federal spending over the next decade, but Beshear says the proposed cuts to the Medicaid program, which covers 50% of the state's children and 70% of its seniors in long-term care, will come at a cost to people's lives, Valentino reports.

Beshear also noted that the closure of 35 rural hospitals would have a grave impact on employment in those communities.

"Our rural hospitals are typically the second-largest employer in the county that they're located in, after the public school system. Now think about all those jobs being wiped out," Beshear told Valentino.

When WKYT asked for comment about the Democrats' concerns about the impact of the bill on rural hospitals, Congressmen Andy Barr, R-Lexington, and Hal Rogers, R-Somerset, said they support the changes, with Barr saying the changes will refocus the program to be available for those truly in need and Rogers saying the changes will remove "waste, fraud and abuse" from the program. Rogers also pointed to the Kentucky Hospital Association's support for the bill.

KHA sent this statement to WKYT about the cuts: "The Kentucky Hospital Association endorses the Big Beautiful Bill Act (H.R. 1), as passed by the U.S. House of Representatives. The bill, as represented by the House, protects the Kentucky Medicaid program, which means that our patients will continue to have access to the care they need, when they need it. If the bill does not pass the Senate, there is a strong likelihood that our Medicaid patients will not be able to access all of the services our hospitals currently provide. We have called on the U.S. Senate to concur in the House Medicaid provisions."

A list of the 35 Kentucky hospitals that Congressional Democrats say could be at risk follows:
