Break free!

It seems like so many things in this world are meant to sweep us away into not feeling or thinking about the life we are living. Many people get caught up into drugs and alcohol to lessen the pain that may be going on in their lives. Some people purchase nice luxury items, not because they necessarily want it but because it makes them feel valuable and worthwhile. Many temptations that lure us away from God make the promise of offering joy, pleasure and satisfaction right now. We might think it will alleviate the consequences of our sinful actions or the actions of others.

Isn't it interesting that God's way is entirely different than this? He sets a different example. God didn't ignore our sin and pain or just tell us we deserve what we get. This was true with the nation of Israel. Through the prophet Hosea, God said, "When Israel was a youth I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son" (Hosea 11:1). God talks about how He took them in His arms and healed them, even though they didn't realize it (vs. 3). He led them with "bonds of love" and He "bent down and fed them" (vs. 4). Ultimately, they had to face consequences because they rejected Him.

Think about what God has done for mankind through His Son Jesus. He sent Jesus to die on the cross for our sins. It was not because we were wonderful, great and deserving. In fact, Paul describes us at helpless, ungodly and sinners (Romans 5:6-8). Yet through Jesus we can be justified, forgiven, saved and reconciled back to God (Romans 5:9-11).

We may live in a world that wants to minimize pain and ignore sin but God sent Jesus to give us a better option! We are not called to be content in the problems of this world but to be free in Christ (Gal. 5:1). Freedom in Christ is an opportunity to break free from the shackles of sin. When Jesus died and was resurrected, He made it possible for us not to have to live with the fear of death (Heb. 2:14-15). Are you living for Jesus?
