Dirty Money
The Story:
A well-respected speaker began a seminar by showing an audience of 150 people a crisp $20 bill. He asked, “Who wants this $20 bill?” All 150 people nodded. He said, “I am going to give this money to someone, but first....” Then he proceeded to crumple the bill up. He asked the crowd again if anyone wanted it. All 150 hands went up in the air. The speaker then dropped the money on the floor and stomped all over it. He then raised it in the air to show the crowd. The money was filthy. “Does anyone want it now?” Every hand went up. The speaker proceeded to tell the crowd that no matter what he did to ruin the money, people still wanted it because its value remained the same. It was still worth $20.

The Moral: Life often

beats us up to the point where we feel inadequate. We deal with bad circumstances and make bad choices that we have to deal with later. However, no matter what you go through, your value will remain the same. You have something special to offer that no one can take away from you. The End.

May we always experience the peace of heaven in a powerful awakening way while we sojourn in this temporal dwelling place as we undoubtedly know the spiritual warfare is real and the powers of darkness are always looking for ways to attack humans. I am so thrilled to know that our lives have innumerable value before the holy throne of grace.

1 Peter 1:7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ. O the glorious appearing of Jesus Christ will be sooner than later and all the currencies of all global counties will not stand to purchase Salvation or the peace of the Holy one of Israel and the permanent dwelling place of the majestic Kingdom of God. Amen. God loves you more than you will ever know.

Heavenly Father, thank you for walking us through the valleys and the unwanted trials. I ask that you open the eyes of souls and melt their hearts in your loving and merciful presence as our days are numbered and help us Lord as we step into new days filled with mercy and loving kindness and may we never take your mercy and grace for granted as we need it so desperately. Help us to love the unlovable and forgive the unforgivable because we as Christians long to please you and we desire to live out each day being led of the Holy Spirit so that we will know how to answer everyone aright with no lack in sight. Thank you Lord for all the opportunities to share your goodness and with souls as our willful obedience shines through no matter the circumstances that appear in our days. We are not moved by the attacks of evil for we are only moved by your priceless word that is ever settled in Heaven and it has all authority upon earth before all saved souls and lost souls alike. Your invaluable truths will carry your children into glory with winning stories that are written in your heart and rewarded greatly before your reigning throne of matchless love and fiery glory. O yes! One fine day we will live with you forever and ever. Amen!

Fiscal Court awarded funding to resurface Locust Grove Road

Nicholas County Judge Executive, Steve Hamilton is pleased to announce that the Nicholas County Fiscal Court has been awarded funding in the amount of $570,000.00, through House Bill 546 to resurface Locust Grove Road.

It has been a very rigorous process as the court was denied funding in the 2024 budget, and had to reapply for year 2025, and received word on March 28, 2025 that they had been awarded. Monies will not be available until July 1, 2025, in the state's new budget.

Plans are to bid out the project this summer and start paving in the fall. The fiscal court appreciates the joint effort locally and at the state level, without everyone coming together it would not have been possible.

BREAD OF LIFE

Resurrection Day, Easter Sunday, is a time for believers to celebrate Jesus' sacrifice, that made it possible to have not only eternal life in Heaven, but also abundant life here on Earth, for all those who receive Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Jesus gave His life for us. He took our sins upon Him, upon the cross. Matthew 27:29 And when they had plaited a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed in His right hand; And they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! 30 And they spit upon Him, and took the reed, and smote Him, they took the robe off from Him, and put His own raiment on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him. Matthew 28:1 In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher. 2 And behold there was a great Earthquake; For the Angel of the Lord descended from Heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. 3 His countenance was like lightening and His raiment white as snow 4 and for fear of Him the keeps did shake, and became as dead men. 5 And the Angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye; for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified 6 He is not here for He is Risen, as He said, Come, see the place where the Lord lay. Matthew 28:9 And as they went to tell His disciples, behold Jesus met them saying, All Hail, And they came and held Him by the feet and worshipped Him. 10 Then said Jesus unto them Be not afraid; go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me. 18 And Jesus came and spoke unto them saying. All power is given unto me in Heaven and in Earth. 19 Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. 20 Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.
