Paul Feeback, 29, of East 19th Street, Paris, Ky., was arrested on Friday, April 25, 2025, by Carlisle Police Officer Josh Mynear, and has been charged with one count of Driving DUI Suspended License – 2nd Offence (Aggravating Circumstances); one count of Operating a Motor Vehicle Under the Influence of Alcohol .08 – 2nd; and one count of Failure to Produce Insurance Card.

Mr. Feeback’s arrest in Nicholas County led to a further charge in Bourbon County, where he was charged with one count of Theft by Unlawful Taking or Disposition – Auto ($1,000<$10,000).

According to the Uniform Citation from the Carlisle Police Department, on April 25, 2025, at 1:01am, Officer Mynear was dispatched to the area of North Broadway Street and Green Valley Road, in reference to a reported reckless driver.

Upon reaching the area, Officer Mynear began attempting to locate the vehicle in question and began driving down nearby streets when he made contact with a white Ford F150 located on West North Street, and initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle. Officer Mynear then made contact with a male driver identified as Paul Feeback, who stated he “had a flat tire” as he was driving on the rim with the rear driver tire shredded. Officer Mynear then observed extensive damage to the driver’s side of the vehicle, starting from the front fender extending to the rear fender.

Officer Mynear then asked Mr. Feeback if he was involved in an accident and he stated he “had not hit anything” and during this time he displayed slurred speech, as well as having red glassy eyes. The officer then asked Mr. Feeback if he had been drinking any alcoholic beverages and he stated, “Yes I have.” The officer then asked what kind, and Mr. Feeback stated, “Kentucky Ale whiskey.” The officer then asked Mr. Feeback how much he had drank and he stated, “a pint.”

At that time Officer Mynear asked Mr. Feeback to perform SFST’s (Standard Field Sobriety Tests) and he agreed. Mr. Feeback refused to perform the one-leg stand and stated, “I’m guilty, just take me to jail.” He was then placed under arrest and Officer Mynear took photos of the damaged vehicle before having it towed from the roadway. At that time, it was unknown what caused the damage to the vehicle, and Mr. Feeback was unable to provide proof of insurance for the vehicle at the time of his arrest.

Mr. Feeback was transported to the Carlisle Police Department where Officer Mynear conducted a started intoxilyzer test, resulting in 0.245. He was then transported to the Bourbon County Detention Center on a $3,500.00/10% bond for the charges in Nicholas County and eventually no bond for the charge in Bourbon County.

Regarding the charge in Bourbon County, according to the Millersburg Police Department Facebook page, on April 25, 2025, at approximately 7:21 p.m., Chief Ben Smith was dispatched to speak to a Millersburg resident regarding their vehicle being stolen. While speaking to the victim, Chief Smith learned that at approximately 1:01 a.m., Carlisle PD located the victim’s vehicle being operated in Carlisle by Paul Feeback of Paris, KY.

The vehicle had severe damage consistent with being involved in a collision; however, it was unknown how the damage occurred. The victim advises that the vehicle will likely be deemed a total loss. Mr. Feeback was ultimately arrested by Carlisle Police Department for DUI-related offenses and lodged in the Bourbon County Detention Center. The victim’s vehicle was towed.

During Chief Smith’s investigation, it was discovered that the victim and Mr. Feeback are close acquaintances, and Mr. Feeback was temporarily residing in a property owned by the victim at the time of the theft. It was determined that unbeknownst to the victim and without permission, Feeback stole the vehicle during the evening hours of April 24th. As a result of the Millersburg Police Department investigation, Mr. Feeback was charged with Theft by Unlawful Taking (Automobile) $1,000 < $10,000.

Paul Feeback is scheduled for arraignment in Nicholas County District Court for the DUI charges on April 30, 2025, at 10:30am, and scheduled for arraignment in Bourbon County District Court for the theft charge on April 30, 2025, at 1:00pm.
