

THE WAY WE WERE

1926
Bond Raised
Hosea Casey and Everett Casey were given examining trial for the alleged theft of three cattle from the pasture of Mrs. A.C. Witherspoon which Jere Caldwell, owner of the cattle, has rented for several season. Caldwell testified that the cattle alleged to be stolen were missed about Aug. 10.

Killed in Accident
M.V. Scroggin, 57 years old, died at the home of his son-in-law Trip Brown at Williamstown. Death came when the top of a cistern gave way and he fell in and was buried by the earth. Two hours elapsed before the body was rescued.

Fined $10
Edgar Etherington, arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of being drunk in a public place, plead not guilty at his trial in City Court Tuesday morning. A jury was summoned and heard evidence in the case and returned a verdict of guilty with a fine of $10 and costs.

Dedicated
The Anderson Board of Education met in the office of County Superintendent J.B. Shely Saturday and among other business agreed that Saturday, Oct. 2, is to be the day on which the new Anderson County Western High School building is to be dedicated.

Plant Sold
By a vote of 3 to 2 the board of city commissioners the Harrodsburg's municipal electric plant was sold for $100,000 to the Kentucky Hydro-Electric Company. A 20-year franchise to furnish light and power was sold for $560.

Weird Corn
Melbourne Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hurd Hawkins of the Gilbert Creek neighborhood, brought to this office a rather peculiar ear of corn. It has eight ears branching from the main stalk. They were all neatly housed in one shuck.

Jailed
Five boys, giving their names as Howard Pulliam, Kent Frederick, Hargis Todd,

Harry Hatterick, and Charles Bolin of Lexington were arrested here early Monday by Policeman Robert Searce. The boys, their ages ranging from 16 to 20 were bumming on the Southern Railway and said they were going to Louisville to witness the Labor Day automobile races in the city.

Lots of Fish
Phil Sharp of Lexington, brother of Geo. W. Sharp of Anderson county, in company with Owen Vaughn, also of Lexington, fished four hours in the Dix Dam lake last week and caught 179 fish weighing 54 pounds. They used 180 minnows and there were four or five bass in the lot, the rest being New Lights.

Personal
Miss Mary Louise Lillard left Monday for Paris where she has accepted a place as teacher in the Paris High School.

Ballard
Mr. John Burns of Fox Creek is very ill.

Glensboro
Mrs. Cliff Stevens and Miss Minnie Gibbs spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Moffett in Lawrenceburg.

Cora
J.W. Bond's sale was well attended and things sold high.

1976
Lose
The Anderson County Bearcats dropped their second game of the season to a strong Woodford County Yellow Jackets team by a score of 34-09.

Coach Larry Barnett said, "The score is not indicative of the type of game our kids played. We gave up the big play too many times. Our defense made mental errors that cost us. However, we rushed for 185 yards and passed for 86 yards.

Accepts Position
Charles William Crain Jr., of Lawrenceburg, has accepted a teaching position in the Grayson County school system. Crain is a 1972 graduate of Anderson County High School and a 1976 graduate of Athens State College, Athens, Alabama. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles William Crain Sr., of Lawrenceburg.

Getting Ugly
Any hopes that the jail budget would get some relief were dashed in August when the number of prisoners transported came in at a near-record high. Jailer Joani Clark reported transporting 117 prisoners during the month, just shy of the record of 123 in May.

New Facility
When Russell Vaden was looking for a place to call home, he liked what he saw in Lawrenceburg. After living in Anderson County for a while, the sorts enthusiast saw an unmet need for those who wanted to work their games regardless of the weather. The idea of the Bearcat Den was hatched. The facility will be located next to Newby's Furniture, near Kroger and KORT Physical Therapy.

Morgan appointed to BGADD board of directors

LAWRENCEBURG — The Lawrenceburg/Anderson County Tourism Commission is pleased to announce that Robbie Morgan, Director of Tourism for Lawrenceburg and Anderson County, has been appointed as a Citizen Board Member to the Board of Directors for the Bluegrass Area Development District (BGADD).

The Bluegrass Area Development District is a regional planning and development organization serving 17 central Kentucky counties. BGADD brings together local elected officials, business leaders, and community representatives to foster regional cooperation, economic growth, infrastructure improvement, and community development across the Bluegrass region.

Appointment to the BGADD Board as a Citizen Board Member is a distinct civic honor. Citizen representatives are selected to bring specialized, community-focused expertise to regional decision-making, ensuring that the diverse economic and social needs of local residents are represented alongside county and city leadership.

"I am deeply honored to join the Board of Directors for the Bluegrass Area Development District," said Morgan. "Tourism, small business growth, and regional infrastructure go hand in hand. Joining the BGADD Board provides a valuable seat at the table to advocate for Anderson County's economic development while collaborating with our neighboring communities to build a stronger, more connected Bluegrass region."

In her role as Director of Tourism, Morgan has championed initiatives to
