

THE WAY WE WERE

1926 Gets Job
The State Highway Commission let the contract for grade and drain on the 6.623 miles of road from Alton in Anderson county, to Graefenberg in Franklin county, to J.M. Perkins Construction Company of Frankfort or the aggregate sum of $53,623.64. This contract, when completed, will connect Anderson county with the Midland Trail.

Coat of Oil
The streets of Lawrenceburg have been oiled and fine rock placed on those sections of the streets which were in need of repair. They are now in condition for the wear and tear of the winter months.

Top Shooter
Russell Etherington, a dark horse, topped the shooters of the Anderson County Gun Club at the farm of Lin Mountjoy when he ran close to the record by breaking 20 out of 25 clay pigeons. Harry Lane and Lin Mountjoy tied for second in the day's festivities with 18 out of 25.

Girl Dies
Miss Mattie Brown, 13 years old, daughter of Mrs. Lillie Brown and the late Charles Brown, died at a hospital in Louisville. The body was brought to Lawrenceburg and arrived on the 10 o'clock train. S.V. Gordon, Lawrenceburg, undertaker, took charge of the body. Death was due to typhoid fever.

Auction
The second antique sale ever held in Lawrenceburg was given a good reception when a crowd composed of people from many Central Kentucky towns filled the store building formerly occupied by J.R. Paxton and Sons. Several pieces of furniture brought good prices. Mrs. J.C. VanArsdel held the sale while her brother, Bolivar Bond of Versailles was the auctioneer.

Kavanaugh
Maurice Robinson of Smithfield has enrolled as a member of the senior class. Officers were elected last week in the senior class as follows: Harry Chester Towles, president; Pauline Jelf, vice-president; Homer V. Cammack, treasurer; Madeline Catlett, secretary; and Luther C. Peak, class orator.

1976 Blood Center Opened
The Blood Center will be opened in Lawrenceburg at the First Baptist Church Friday with donors received from 1 to 5:30 p.m. it was announced by chairman Truman Birdwhistell.

A special appeal is being made to obtain 84 pints of blood at this visit of the Louisville mobile unit to this county, Birdwhistell said. We haven't reached our goal here for more than two years.

Resign
Two Anderson Emergency Medical Service employees, Bobby Peach and Bill Searcy, have resigned their positions effectively immediately, according to Director Don Leigh. Leigh said the two employees, both hired in July 1973 when the service began, resigned because of the lack of security in their jobs.

Pony Killed
Two couples escaped serious injury Monday night when their automobile headed toward Lawrenceburg on the US 127 bypass, struck and killed a pony a short distance north of the Claylick Road intersection.
