Knox County Clerk Mike Corey's 2025 financial statements audit has been completed and released by State Auditor Allison Ball.

The audit showed no noncompliance or operational weaknesses in financial reporting in the statements.

It is mentioned that the financial statements were "prepared on a regulatory basis of accounting, which demonstrates compliance with the Commonwealth of Kentucky's regulatory basis of accounting and budget laws, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America."

"I would like to thank my staff for keeping integrity in the financial aspects of our office," said Corey.

Walmart makes donation to Knox Co. UNITE

Knox County UNITE Chair Claudia Greenwood was excited to receive a donation from the Barbourville Walmart manager and employees during the store's grand reopening on Friday, November 6.

The check will support youth education and prevention activities in Knox County. Greenwood thanked the manager and employees for their continued support of UNITE and the many community organizations they help.

"We are grateful for Walmart's ongoing commitment to our youth and to the entire community," Greenwood said.

Barbourville Woman's Club Supports DanceBlue

The Barbourville Woman's Club was pleased to participate in the DanceBlue event held Saturday, November 7, at Knox Central High School.

During the event, the club presented a check for $1,892.05 in support of the cause. DanceBlue raises funds to assist children and families affected by pediatric cancer.

Making the check presentation on behalf of the club were President Dianna Adams and members Joetta Gaunt, Courtney Barnhill, Sarah Wahlstedt and Meghann Chesnut.

The Barbourville Woman's Club was honored to support the event and contribute to its important mission.
